- (o) to establish or arrange for the establishment of a fund or funds for long service leave and superannuation for full-time officers and employees in the Federation and its Branches;
- (p) to purchase, take on lease, hold, sell, lease, mortgage, exchange and otherwise own, possess and deal with any real or personal property and in particular any land, buildings or easements for any purposes connected with the conduct of the Federation and its Branches;
- (q) to borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such a manner as the Federation or a Branch may think fit, to secure the same, or the repayment or performance of any debt liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred, or to be entered into by the Federation or a Branch in any way and to redeem or pay off such securities;
- (r) to sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Federal Council;
- (s) to do all such things as the Federation may from time to time deem incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them;
- (t) to establish Branches and Sub-Branche s throughout Australia;
- (u) to encourage and foster improvement of the status, training and qualifications of all members;

6 - ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

- (v) to ensure that its members enjoy the same civil rights as are enjoyed by other citizens;
- (w) to secure the participation of, and influence of members in the administration, development and planning of policing;
- (x) to secure improvements in policing methods and the standard of policing;
- (y) to co-operate with and assist other organisations, associations, institutions and groups in the pursuit of these Objects;
- (z) to provide the absolute autonomy of a Branch in matters affecting members of the Branch only; and
- (aa) to foster the professional standing of members of the Federation and the enhancement of the community standing of the industry.

5 - REGISTERED OFFICE

The registered office of the Federation shall be at such place as the Federal Council may from time to time decide.

6 - ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

- (a) An applicant for membership shall complete an application form for membership in a form approved by the Committee of Management of the applicable Branch.
- (b) Subject to Rule 6A an application for membership of the Federation shall be held by the applicable Branch. In the case of the Australian Federal Police Association Branch the application form shall be forwarded to the Branch Secretary / Treasurer of that Branch. In the case of a person who is a member of either the Western Australian or Queensland Police Service and where there is no Branch having coverage for such a person that person shall make an application to join the Federation by forwarding that application to the Chief Executive Officer who shall process that application in accordance with sub rule (e) hereof.
- (c) Subject always to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this Rule, as from the date of receipt of such application, the applicant shall become and be a member of the Federation. The Branch Secretary, Branch Chief Executive Officer or Zone Secretary, as defined in the Australian Federal Police Association Branch Rules, shall advise applicants for membership in writing of (i) the financial obligations arising from membership and (ii) the circumstances and the manner in which a member may resign from the organisation.
- (d) This paragraph shall apply to an applicant for membership who is eligible to become a member of a Branch the boundaries of which are referred to in Rule 34. Subject always to paragraph (f) of this Rule, as from the date of the receipt of such application, the applicant shall become and be a member of the Federation. The Branch Secretary, Branch Chief Executive Officer or Zone Co-ordinator, as defined in the Australian Federal Police Association Branch Rules, shall advise applicants for membership in writing of (i) the financial obligations arising from membership and (ii) the circumstances and the manner in which a member may resign from the organisation.

- (e) This paragraph shall apply to an applicant for membership who is eligible to become a member of a Branch the boundaries of which are referred to in Rule 34. The Branch Secretary or Branch Chief Executive Officer (as the case may be) or Zone Co-ordinator, as defined in the Australian Federal Police Association Branch Rules, shall have the power to refer any application for membership to the Branch Executive for consideration and decision, in which case such applicant shall not become a member until notified in writing by the Branch Executive of his or her admission to membership of the Federation. Where the Branch Executive refuses such an application for admission, the applicant shall have the right of appeal to the Federal Council. Such an appeal shall be in writing, addressed to the Chief Executive Officer and must be lodged within twenty-one days of such refusal. The date of the decision of the Federal Council, where favourable to the applicant, shall be deemed to be the date of admission to membership of the Federation.
- (f) An applicant whose application is refused, shall have refunded to him/her any amount or amounts paid by him/her by way of fees or subscriptions.
- (g) Life Members may be elected to the Police Federation of Australia. Members so elected shall be governed by the Rules of the Federation and unless a duly elected delegate, shall not have right and/or power to:
 - (a) Move, second or vote upon any matter before any meeting of the Federation; or
 - (b) Be eligible for nomination or election or to vote in an election for any position of office in the Federation, unless they are a duly elected delegate.

Nominations for Life Membership may be made by a Branch or the Executive. Notwithstanding the AFPA Branch of the PFA can determine Life Membership within its own Branch. Any such nomination must be received at the registered office of the Federation not less than sixty days prior to the subsequent Federal Council meeting for voting on at that meeting.

The Chief Executive Officer will present to the Council the nominated person's history within the Federation and a secret ballot shall be conducted. Such ballot will require a two-third (2/3) majority vote of the Council of the Federation whose decision shall be final and binding.

6B - ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN THE FEDERATION AND STATE/TERRITORY UNIONS

The National Executive of the Federation may enter into an agreement with each State/Territory Union regarding arrangements between the Federation and the State/Territory Unions.

7 - SUBSCRIPTIONS

- (a) Annual subscriptions shall be collected by the Committee of the Branch to which the Member is attached, or if he/she be not attached to a Branch, collected by and paid to the Chief Executive Officer.
- (b) Annual subscriptions paid by members shall be paid in accordance with the relevant Branch Rules.
- (c) Subject to Rule 7(e), on and from 31 December 1999 each Branch shall remit in monthly instalments to the Chief Executive Officer of the Federation for Federation purposes an amount calculated by multiplying the number of financial members of the Branch as at 31 December in the previous year by the capitation fee fixed by Federal Council in accordance with Rule 15(o). That capitation fee fixed by the Federal Council shall be the same fee for each and every member of the Federation excepting where a Branch agrees that a higher capitation fee shall apply for each member in the Branch.

- (d) All monies payable to the Federation shall be paid to the Chief Executive Officer who shall, within seven days of their receipt, place them, or cause them to be placed to the credit of the Federation at such financial institutions as the Federal Executive or Federal Council may from time to time determine.
- (e) From the certification of Rules 7(e) and 7(f), payment of the amount calculated under Rule 7(c) by the State or Territory Union shall constitute payment in full of that amount by the respective Branch for all purposes of the Federal Rules.
- (f) For the purposes of Rule 7, “the State or Territory Union” shall mean any of the following: the Queensland Police Union, the Police Association of New South Wales, the Police Association Victoria, the Police Association of Tasmania, the Police Association of South Australia, the Northern Territory Police Association and the Western Australia Police Union of Workers.

7A - SPECIAL RULE FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS

Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 7 the payment by an eligible person to a State/Territory Union of the prescribed membership contribution or subscription under the rules of the respective State/Territory Union shall during the continuation of payments under Rule 7(c) constitute payment in full of the membership contributions and fees to the Federation.

7B - SPECIAL RULE FOR UNFINANCIAL MEMBERSHIP

An eligible person who is unfinancial under the rules of the respective State/Territory Union shall be an unfinancial member of the Federation unless such contributions or subscriptions referred to in Rule 7A or levies have been paid to the State/Territory Union or payment is made in full of the subscriptions required by the Federation.

8 - LEVIES

- (a)
 - (i) The Federal Council shall have power to impose levies upon the Branches provided that such levies may only be imposed by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of the Federal Council delegates, and a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of each of the Branch Executives.
 - (ii) Subject to Rule 8(e), levies under Rule 8 shall be collected by, and paid by the Committee of the Branch. Each Branch shall cause the amount of such levies collected by it to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer within three months of such levy becoming due, and thereafter shall pay to the Chief Executive Officer, the amount of such levies monthly.
- (b) Nothing in this rule shall empower the Federal Council to impose a levy upon a Branch which would have the effect of requiring the Branch to pay moneys to the Federal Council greater than those moneys received from the appropriate State/Territory Union in accordance with the Deed of Agreement between the Federation and State and Territory Unions executed on 9 October 1997.
- (c) Nothing in this rule shall permit the Federal Council to impose a levy on individual members.
- (d) For the purposes of this rule, a levy shall be the requirement to pay monies in addition to membership subscriptions and fees.

- (e) From the certification of Rules 8(e) and 8(f), payment of an amount under Rule 8(a) by the State or Territory Union shall constitute payment in full of that amount by the respective Branch.
- (f) For the purposes of Rule 8, “the State or Territory Union” shall mean any of the following: the Queensland Police Union, the Police Association of New South Wales, the Police Association Victoria, the Police Association of Tasmania, the Police Association of South Australia, the Northern Territory Police Association and the Western Australia Police Union of Workers.

9 - UNFINANCIAL BRANCHES

Where a Branch fails to remit its capitation fees within one month of demand of same by the Federal Council, the Federal Council may remove the voting rights of that Branch.

10 - UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

- (a) Subject to Rule 35 and any relevant Branch Rules and Clause (d) of this rule, a member shall be deemed to be unfinancial by the Branch Secretary or Branch Chief Executive Officer, in accordance with Clause (b).
- (b) A member owing subscriptions or fees for a period of three months after they first become due shall, subject to notification of the proposed action, be deemed to be unfinancial.
- (c) An unfinancial member shall not be entitled:
 - (i) to any of the rights and privileges of membership;
 - (ii) to nominate for or hold any office or in any way participate in any ballot or election in the Federation or any Branch of the Federation;
 - (ii) to attend or speak or vote at any meeting of the Federation or Branch of the Federation; or
 - (iv) shall not accrue any liabilities in the name of the Federation, nor shall the Federation be liable for any claim arising from or connected with the activities of an unfinancial member.
- (d) The Federal Council, Branch Secretary, or as provided in Rule 57 Clause (e), may exempt a member from payment either in whole or in part of any subscription or fee. For the purposes of these Rules, such exempt member shall retain continuity of membership, but shall not, during the period of the exemption, be eligible to nominate for or hold any office or in any way participate in any ballot or election in the Federation or any branch of the Federation.
- (e) The Federal Council or Branch Committee shall have the power to proceed in the name of the Federation against any member for recovery of any arrears of subscriptions, fees or levies imposed by the Federation.
- (f) In the event of a member being deemed to be an unfinancial member in accordance with this rule, that member shall have the right of appeal to the Federal Council. Such appeal shall be in writing, addressed to the Chief Executive Officer and must be lodged within 21 days of the member being deemed to be unfinancial.

11 - TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (a) Membership of the Federation shall be terminated:
 - (i) by resignation in accordance with these Rules, or;
 - (ii) by expulsion in accordance with these Rules, or;
 - (iii) by death of the member, or;
 - (iv) by the member ceasing to be eligible to become a member of the Federation; in accordance with Rule 3.
- (b) A member may resign from membership of the Federation by notice in writing addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the member's Branch, Zone Secretary or the Chief Executive Officer.
- (c) A notice of the resignation from membership of the Federation shall take effect:
 - (i) where the member ceases to be eligible to become a member of the Federation;
 - (a) on the day upon which the notice is received by the Federation; or
 - (b) on the day specified in the notice, which is a day not earlier than the day when the member ceases to be eligible to become a member;whichever is later; or
 - (ii) in any other case:
 - (a) at the end of two weeks after the notice is received by the Federation; or
 - (b) on the day specified in the notice;whichever is later.
- (d) A notice delivered to the Secretary of the member's Branch, Zone Secretary or the Chief Executive Officer shall be taken to have been received by the Federation when it was delivered.
- (e) A notice of resignation that has been received by the Federation shall not be invalid because it was not addressed and delivered in accordance with Clause (b) of this Rule.
- (f) A resignation from membership of the Federation shall be valid even if it is not effected in accordance with this Rule if the member is informed in writing by or on behalf of the Federation that the resignation has been accepted.
- (g) Any subscriptions fees or levies payable but not paid by the former member in relation to a period before the member's resignation from the Federation took effect, may be sued for and recovered in the name of the Federation, in a Court of competent jurisdiction, as a debt due to the Federation subject to section 264(A) of the Act.

12 - RULE BOOK

Each member shall be supplied with a copy of the registered Rules of the Federation upon application to the Chief Executive Officer or to a Branch Secretary.

PART B - FEDERAL ORGANISATION

13 - EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF THE FEDERATION

The Officers of the Federation shall be honorary and shall comprise the Federal President, two Federal Vice-Presidents, a Federal Treasurer and Executive Members. The Federal President, the two Federal Vice-Presidents and the Federal Treasurer shall be members of Federal Council and Federal Executive and have full voting rights and shall be included in the number of Delegates from their respective Branches but shall not constitute additional Delegates from those Branches. And further, there be nothing in these rules to prevent a person holding the position of Vice-President and Treasurer.

14 - FEDERAL COUNCIL

- (a) The Federal Council shall consist of delegates elected by the respective Branches from the financial members in each Branch in accordance with the Rules of the Branches in Parts, C, CA, CB, CC, CD, CE, CF, CG and D thereof.
- (b) The number of delegates in each Branch shall be determined on the basis of one delegate for the first one thousand (1,000) financial members or part thereof, and one additional delegate for each succeeding two thousand five hundred (2,500) financial members or part thereof.
- (c) The Delegates to Federal Council shall be elected and subject to Rule 27(f), hold office in accordance with their respective Branch Rules.
- (d) For the purposes of this Rule, the financial membership of the Federation and within each Branch shall be that membership as at 31 December in the immediately preceding year. Where between elections the membership of a Branch is increased such that the Branch would be entitled to an additional delegate, then such additional position shall be created and filled as if it were a casual vacancy in accordance with the rules of the Branch concerned and the delegate shall hold office until the next regular election for such delegates of the Branch.
- (e) Voting entitlements at meetings of Federal Council shall be in accordance with Rule 14, Clause (b) and attendance at meetings of Federal Council in accordance with Rule 14, Clause (c).
- (f) The Chief Executive Officer of the Federation shall be entitled to attend and speak at meetings and participate in his/her capacity as Chief Executive Officer at meetings of Federal Executive and Federal Council but shall not be entitled to move any motion, resolution, or vote.

15 - POWERS AND DUTIES OF FEDERAL COUNCIL

The Federal Council shall, subject to these Rules and the control by the members as hereinafter mentioned, be the supreme governing body of the Federation and have the management and control of the affairs of the Federation and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall in particular have power:

- (a) to determine and direct the policy of the Federation in all matters affecting the Federal Council or the Federation as a whole, except matters affecting the members of only one Branch;
- (b) to make, add to, amend, rescind and/or otherwise alter these Rules, but not Rules made by Branches under Rule 51A (South Australia); 52BQ (Tasmania); 52CA (Western Australia); 52CT (Victoria); 52DK (Northern Territory); 52ET (NSW); 85 (Queensland); and 111 (the Association).

- (c) to determine, prior to the conduct of elections, those Officers to be designated Full Time Officers, to fix the remuneration and terms and conditions of Full Time Officers of the Federation and to fix the remuneration and terms and conditions of appointment of a Chief Executive Officer and to appoint or terminate the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer or other officers appointed by the Federal Council or Federal Executive. The Council may terminate the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer or any elected officer if he/she is found guilty of:
- misappropriation of the funds of the Federation;
 - a substantial breach of the Rules of the Federation;
 - gross misbehaviour;
 - gross neglect of duty.
- Such a termination must be effected within 28 days of a decision to suspend in accordance with Rule 20 (f).
- (d) to at least annually fix the remuneration to be paid to any Federal Returning Officer;
- (e) to resolve that the Federation affiliate with, or amalgamate with, or absorb any other organisation or body;
- (f) to appoint a Federal Auditor and to fix the remuneration to be paid to the same;
- (g) to delegate its authority on any matter it determines to the Federal Executive, other than alteration of Rules pursuant to Rule 33;
- (h) to establish any committees or subcommittees as it may from time to time determine provided that any such committee or subcommittee shall not exercise any executive powers but shall have and exercise only advisory powers;
- (i) to interpret these Rules;
- (j) to direct the investment of the federal funds, other than the funds of a Branch;
- (k) to dispose of or transfer any of the federal funds or any securities in which the funds of the Federation has been invested other than the funds or securities of a Branch;
- (l) to determine from time to time the standing orders and Rules of debate to apply to meetings of the Federal Council, Federal Executive, Branch Committees and general meetings of members of the Federation or any Branch thereof. A copy of such standing orders and Rules of debate as determined from time to time shall be supplied free of charge by the Branch to any financial member of the Branch requesting the same;
- (m) to determine policy for exemption of members from payment of subscriptions, fees or levies;
- (n) to purchase, take on lease, hold, sell, lease, mortgage, exchange or otherwise own, possess and deal with any real or personal property.
- (o) to fix the capitation fee for the purposes of sub-rule 7(c).

All decisions of the Federal Council shall be final and shall remain in force unless and until varied, amended or rescinded by it or by a plebiscite of members of the Federation.

16 - MEETINGS OF FEDERAL COUNCIL

- (a) The Federal Council shall meet at least once per financial year, in the month of October or at such other times as are determined by the Federal Council or the Federal Executive.
- (b) Special meetings of the Federal Council shall be held by resolution of the Federal Council or Federal Executive or by decisions of the Federal President in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer.
- (c) The Chief Executive Officer shall give each member of the Federal Council and each Branch at least one month's notice of the annual meeting of Federal Council and seven days' notice of any special meeting thereof.
- (d) Upon request in writing, made by any three Branches or a simple majority of delegates specifying the business to be dealt with, a special meeting shall be called within one month of receipt of the request by the Chief Executive Officer.

17 - AGENDA FOR FEDERAL COUNCIL

- (a) Not less than 60 days prior to an annual meeting of the Federal Council, the Chief Executive Officer shall invite each Branch to submit items for the Agenda, such items to be forwarded to the Chief Executive Officer not more than 30 days after such invitation.
- (b) The Chief Executive Officer shall, upon receipt of such items, prepare and forward to each member of the Federal Council and to each Branch a copy of the agenda paper at least 14 days prior to the annual meeting of Federal Council.
- (c) Federal Executive shall have power to submit items for consideration by Federal Council and such items shall be included on the agenda paper referred to in Clause (b) of this Rule.
- (d) The agenda paper for a special meeting of Federal Council shall be forwarded with the notice of such meeting. Such special meeting of Federal Council shall only consider matters placed upon the agenda and notified to delegates in accordance with these Rules.
- (e) Federal Council may, at any of its meetings, other than special meetings, deal with any matter whether or not that matter has appeared or appears on the agenda paper, provided that a 2/3 majority of the members of Federal Council present and voting vote in favour of the particular item being considered that such matter is raised under general business.

18 - FARES AND EXPENSES

Federal Council may determine from time to time the fares and expenses to be paid to or on behalf of members of the Federal Council and Federal Executive when attending meetings of the same or when attending to the business of the Federation.

19 - MATTERS REQUIRING DECISION BETWEEN FEDERAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

- (a) The Federal Executive, or the Federal President in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer may determine that any matter requires a decision of the Federal Council between annual meetings of the Federal Council and that such matter be submitted to the Federal Council for decision in accordance with either of the procedures prescribed in clauses (b) and (c) of this Rule.
- (b) (i) Where it is determined that the matter be submitted to the Federal Council for decision by ballot of the members of the Federal Council, such matter may be forwarded by post, facsimile or other electronic means, to each of the members of the Federal Council.

20 - FEDERAL EXECUTIVE COMPOSITION, POWERS AND DUTIES

- (ii) The members of the Federal Council shall record their vote of the matter so submitted by post, facsimile or other electronic means, addressed to the Chief Executive Officer and the decision in accordance with these Rules shall be binding as if such decision was obtained by vote at a regularly constituted meeting of the Federal Council.
 - (iii) All votes shall be confirmed by members of Federal Council recording the same. If any vote be recorded by means other than letter then such vote shall be confirmed by letter signed by the member of the Federal Council.
- (c) Where it is determined that the matter be submitted to the Federal Council for decision by a meeting of members of the Federal Council conducted by post, facsimile or electronic means as may from time to time be available, the Chief Executive Officer shall within 72 hours arrange such a meeting.
- (d) If:
 - (i) in the course of a ballot conducted pursuant to Clause (b) of this Rule, a majority of members of the Federal Council notify the Chief Executive Officer; or
 - (ii) in the course of a meeting conducted pursuant to clause (c) of this Rule, a majority of members of the Federal Council resolve that the matter as submitted to them is of such importance as to require a special meeting of the Federal Council, then such meeting of the Federal Council be convened forthwith by the Chief Executive Officer to meet at such time and place as the Federal Executive shall determine.
- (e) If a special Federal Council Meeting be held for the purposes of the immediately preceding clause such other matters as the Federal Executive or Federal Council shall determine may be submitted to the meeting.
- (f) Any ballot conducted in accordance with Rule 19, Clause (b) shall take place over a minimum period of 72 hours and a maximum period of 14 days.
- (g) For the purposes of this rule, a majority shall be no less than 50% plus one vote of those who are eligible to vote by post, facsimile, or electronic means.

 - (i) The Federal Executive shall consist of no more than one Federal Council Delegate drawn from each Branch of the Federation, Federal Executive members shall be elected by Federal Council Delegates from amongst their number.
 - (ii) The Federal Executive shall elect by and from their number, a President, two Vice-Presidents and a Treasurer. The President, two Vice-Presidents and Treasurer will not constitute additional members of the Executive in accordance with Rule 13.
 - (iii) The Federal Executive shall, subject to these Rules and the decisions of the Federal Council, have power to conduct and manage the affairs of the Federation between meetings of the Federal Council;
 - (iv) Voting entitlements at meetings of the Federal Executive shall be on the basis of one vote for each Branch subject to Rule 20(h).
- (b) Between meetings of the Federal Council, the Federal Executive shall have and may exercise all the powers of the Federal Council except (subject to any power being delegated to it by the Federal Council) the powers referred to in Rule 15 paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (e), (g), and (j).
- (c) The Federal Executive shall meet at such times, dates and places as it resolves or as shall be fixed by the Federal President in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer.

- (d) The Chief Executive Officer shall give each member of the Federal Executive at least 7 days' notice of meetings of the Federal Executive and 72 hours' notice of any special meeting thereof.
- (e) Where in the interests of the Federation it is necessary that there be a meeting of the Federal Executive, but it is not practicable for the Federal Executive to assemble, the Federal President after consultation with the Chief Executive Officer may determine that the business of any such Federal Executive meeting convened pursuant to Clause (c) of this Rule shall be conducted by telephone conference or other electronic means by which members of the Federal Executive are able to communicate orally with each other without being physically present at the meeting. The minutes of such meetings shall be taken and a copy thereof shall forthwith be forwarded by mail or facsimile to each member of the Federal Executive.
- (f) The Federal Executive shall appoint and remove such Federal Staff, other than the Chief Executive Officer, as the Executive deems necessary. The Federal Executive may suspend such Federal Staff, including the Chief Executive Officer on full pay if they determine on reasonable grounds that he/she is guilty of:
 - misappropriation of funds of the Federation;
 - a substantial breach of the Rules of the Federation;
 - gross misbehaviour;
 - gross neglect of duty.
- (g) The Chief Executive Officer shall be entitled to attend and speak only at and participate in meetings of the Federal Executive, but shall not be entitled to move any motion, resolution, or vote.
- (h) Any 3 Executive Members may request that a matter for decision of Executive be made in accordance with the "weighted voting procedures". When such a request is made the decision of Executive shall be determined accordingly. For the purposes of this rule, the "weighted voting procedure" shall mean that each Executive Member shall be entitled to cast as many votes as there are representatives to Council from their respective Branches in accordance with Rule 14(a). A simple majority of all votes cast shall decide the issue the subject of the vote.
- (i) Between meetings of the Federal Executive, the CEO will consult, where possible, and advise the President, Vice-Presidents and Treasurer on all matters that would normally be considered by the Executive.

21 - ELECTIONS, BALLOTS AND PLEBISCITES

Each election for an officer of the Federation shall be conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission in accordance with the Act and Regulations unless an exemption is granted in accordance with the Act and Regulations.

- (a) Tenure of Office
 - (i) Where Federal Council has determined in accordance with Rule 15, Clause (c) to designate an Officer as a Full Time Officer such a Full Time Officer shall be elected by secret postal ballot of all members of the Federation, in accordance with Rule 21, Clause (h) and shall take office from the declaration of their election, and shall hold office for a period of 4 years or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken office.
 - (ii) In respect of the election of Honorary Officers of the Federation as identified in Rule 13, but subject to any prevailing determination of the Federal Council pursuant to paragraph (i) of this sub rule, such officers shall:
 - A. be elected by secret ballot by and from the appropriate electorate as prescribed by Rule 20 and this Rule;

- B. take office from the declaration of their election and hold office for the term of their office or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken office, but subject to any other provision of these Rules affecting office holding;

 - D. have a term of office of two years commencing with elections to be conducted in 2019, and biennially thereafter.
- (iii) In respect of the election of the offices of President, Vice Presidents (two) and the Treasurer, but subject to any prevailing determination of the Federal Council pursuant to paragraph (i) of this sub rule, such officers shall:
- A. be elected by secret ballot by and from the Federal Executive;
 - B. take office from the declaration of their election and hold office for the term of their office or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken office, but subject to any other provision of these Rules affecting office holding;
 - C. have a term of office of one year where election to that office occurs prior to 2019; and
 - D. have a term of office of two years commencing with elections to be conducted in 2019, and biennially thereafter.

(b) Qualifications for Officer

A nominee for any Honorary Officer or Full Time Officer position of the Federation shall be a financial member of the Federation as at the date of his/her nomination and;

- (i) in the case of Honorary Officer positions, a member of the Federal Council; or
- (ii) in the case of Full-time Officer positions, nominated by two members of the Federation.

(c) Election of Honorary Officers of the Federation

- (i) The election of Honorary Officers shall be held during the Annual Federal Council Meeting conducted in each year that elections are required by these Rules. At that time the elections are to be held, the Returning Officer shall call for nominations for the positions of Executive Members in accordance with the provisions of Rules 20 and 21 and conduct the elections in a manner consistent with the provisions of Rules 20 and 21. Successful candidate will take up their positions upon the close of that Federal Council meeting and shall hold office until the close of the next Annual Federal Council at which elections are required to be conducted. Such elections are to be conducted biennially as and from the elections to be conducted in 2019 (see sub Rules (ii) and (iii) of this Rule).
- (ii) The Executive shall elect, by and from their number, a President, two Vice-Presidents and a Treasurer, unless Federal Council has determined in accordance with Rule 15(c) that any or all of these positions are Full Time Officer Positions. In the case of an Executive position or the office of President, Vice-President or Treasurer being determined to be a Full Time Officer, then that position shall be elected by a secret postal ballot of the members of the Federation in accordance with Rule 21 Clause (g).

- (iii) Nominations for the positions of President, Vice-Presidents and Treasurer shall be called for by the Returning Officer immediately after the election of the Executive Members has been concluded, if these positions have not already been filled by virtue of Rule 21, Clause (c)(ii). If nominations for any position do not exceed the number to be elected, the nominee shall be declared elected. If two or more nominations are received the Returning Officer shall forthwith conduct a ballot of Executive Members in accordance with Rule 21 and declare the result as soon as it becomes available.
- (iv) Nominations for the positions of Vice-Presidents shall be called for by the Returning Officer immediately after the election of the President has been concluded. If more nominations are received than there are vacancies, the Returning Officer shall forthwith conduct a ballot of Executive Members and declare the result as soon as it becomes available.
- (v) Nominations shall be in writing, signed by the nominee and two nominators (who shall be members of the Federation) and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer, provided that a nominee shall not be eligible to hold more than one position (no one person may hold more than one position of Federal Executive Member (refer to Rule 20(a)(i)), however, any one Executive Member may nominate for the positions of Vice President and Treasurer (refer to Rule 13)).
- (vi) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received for compliance with the requirements of these Rules and shall reject any that do not so comply, provided that in the event of the Returning Officer finding a defect in any nomination, the Returning Officer shall, before rejecting the nomination, notify the person concerned of the defect and, where it is practicable to do so, give the nominee the opportunity of remedying the defect where practicable within a reasonable period of the nominee having been so notified.
- (vii) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position the Returning Officer shall have ballot papers prepared containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot indicating the number to be elected to each position, the manner in which votes shall be recorded and the date and the time of closing of the ballot.
- (viii) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the ballot papers and shall initial every ballot paper prior to distribution.
- (ix) The Returning Officer shall provide a ballot paper to each member of the appropriate electorate in attendance at the meeting who is eligible to vote and shall arrange for the use of a receptacle to which ballot papers shall be returned to him/her and after the closing of the ballot the Returning Officer shall collect the ballot papers from such receptacle.
- (x) Upon collecting the same the Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the scrutineers (if so requested) count all the votes cast and, subject to Clause (c)(xi) of this Rule, declare the result of the ballot.
- (xi) In the event of a tie occurring, the result shall be determined by the Returning Officer drawing lots in the presence of the tied candidates.
- (xii) Upon declaration of the ballot, the Returning Officer shall seal and retain all ballot papers for a period of twelve months after the conduct of the ballot.

(d) Returning Officer

- (i) At the first annual meetings of the Federal Council and the Federal Executive, following certification of these Rules, and each annual meeting thereafter, each body shall appoint a Returning Officer and set his/her remuneration for the conduct of any elections, ballots or plebiscites as may be necessary throughout the ensuing year provided that a duly appointed Returning Officer shall hold office until a successor thereto is duly appointed.
- (ii) A Returning Officer
 - (a) need not be a member of the Federation; and
 - (b) in any event, shall not be the holder of any office in or an employee of the Federation or any Branch or SubBranch of the Federation.
- (iii) In the event of a duly appointed Returning Officer being unable or unwilling to act as and when required whether during the conduct of any election ballot or plebiscite or not, the relevant body shall appoint another person to act as Returning Officer for that election, ballot or plebiscite.
- (iv) Returning Officer so appointed shall have power to appoint such assistants as he/she deems necessary provided that such assistants shall at all times be subject to the absolute control and direction of the Returning Officer.

(e) System of Voting

- (i) The system of voting in any election for an Officer of the Federation shall be the first past the post system.
- (ii) A voter shall record his/her vote by placing a mark on the ballot paper in the square opposite the name of as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled.

(f) Absent Voting

A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which he/she can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for absent vote to be lodged.

(g) Scrutineers

Any candidate or Branch of the Federation (in the case of a plebiscite) may if he/she or it so desires appoint a scrutineer who is a member of the Federation to represent them at the ballot. Any party appointing a scrutineer shall, before the closing of nominations, notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer, who;

- (i) shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count, but the Returning Officer shall have final determination of any vote or queries;
- (ii) shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election; and
- (iii) shall not interfere with or attempt to influence any member at the time such member is casting his/her vote.

(h) Election of Full Time Officers

Where the Federal Council has determined in accordance with Rule 15, Clause (c) to designate an Officer as a Full Time Officer position, such officer or officers shall be elected in accordance with the following procedure;

- (i) The Election of Full Time Officers shall commence not later than the 1st day of June in the year of an election when the Returning Officer shall call for nominations by advertisement in a daily newspaper circulating throughout the States and Territories in which the Federation has members and shall issue nomination forms to any financial member requesting the same.
- (ii) Nominations shall be in writing signed by the nominee and two nominators (who shall be members of the Federation) and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer not later than 5.00 pm on the 1st day of July in the year of the election.
- (iii) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received for compliance with the requirements of these Rules and shall reject any that do not so comply; provided that in the event of his/her finding a defect in any nomination he/she shall before rejecting the nomination notify the person concerned of the defect, and, where it is practicable to do so, give him/her the opportunity of remedying the defect within, where practicable, not less than seven days of his/her having been so notified.
- (iv) If there be no more nominations than there are vacancies for a position, he/she shall declare the nominated person or persons elected to the position.
- (v) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position, he/she shall have ballot papers printed and delivered to him/her containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot, indicating the number to be elected to each position, the manner in which votes shall be recorded and the date and time of closing of the ballot such date being not later than the 15th day of August immediately following the closing of nominations.
- (vi) The conduct of the ballot shall be conducted in a manner consistent with the provisions contained in sub-rule (j) of Rule 21, with the necessary changes.

(i) Extraordinary Vacancies

- (i) Where an extraordinary or casual vacancy (howsoever occurring) arises in any Office of the Federation, the Federal President or Chief Executive Officer shall take immediate action to have such vacancy filled provided that:
 - (a) where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs does not exceed three quarters of the term, the Federal Council may fill such vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the Federation; and
 - (b) where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs exceeds three quarters of the term, the Federal Council may fill such vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the Federation until an election is held, provided that no person so appointed shall hold office for a period exceeding three months.
- (ii) Such election shall be conducted by the Returning Officer appointed pursuant to this Rule and the Returning Officer so appointed shall determine the dates for the opening and closing of nominations and the ballot and shall report the result of the election to the next following meeting of the Federal Council and the Federal Executive.
- (iii) Any person so elected shall take office from the date of the declaration of his/her election and shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the person he/she replaced.

- (iv) In all other aspects, the election shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules provided that the Federal President may decide that in the case of an Honorary Officer Position to fill the vacancy by secret postal ballot if appropriate, in lieu of a ballot conducted at a meeting.

(j) Conduct of Plebiscites

Where the conduct of a plebiscite has been called in accordance with the Rules, the following procedures shall apply;

- (i) The matter to be determined shall be referred by the Chief Executive Officer to the Returning Officer for the purpose of conducting the plebiscite.
 - (ii) The Federal Executive shall approve for issue with the ballot paper a fair summary of the arguments for and against the question to be voted upon in the plebiscite and, for this purpose, the Chief Executive Officer, after consultation with the parties in contention, shall submit to the Federal Executive a draft of such summary.
 - (iii) Any such plebiscite shall be conducted by secret postal ballot and shall be under the absolute control and direction of the Returning Officer appointed pursuant to Rule 21, Clause (d) who shall;
 - (a) prepare ballot papers which shall contain the question to be voted on;
 - (b) obtain from each Branch Secretary/Branch Chief Executive Officer, a list, including sufficient details to facilitate the conduct of a postal ballot, of Federation members, eligible to vote as at the date of the calling of the plebiscite;
 - (c) cause to be posted by prepaid post to each member entitled to vote in the plebiscite a ballot paper, initialled by the Returning Officer, together with a reply paid envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, the summary approved by the Federal Executive and such directions and instructions as he/she may deem necessary for the conduct of the plebiscite;
 - (d) determine the time and date for the closure of the ballot, having consideration for the convenience of the voters;
 - (e) he/she shall arrange for the use of a post office box or other receptacle to which ballot papers may be returned to him/her and after the closing of the ballot he/she shall collect the ballot papers from such box or receptacle;
 - (f) upon collecting the returned ballots, he/she shall, in the presence of the scrutineers (if so requested) count all the votes cast and, subject to sub paragraph (i) of this paragraph, declare the result of the ballot;
 - (g) take such steps as are necessary to ensure that a result is correctly ascertained;
 - (h) report the result of the plebiscite to the first meeting of the Federal Executive held after the conclusion of the counting of the votes cast; and
 - (i) make a declaration of the result of the plebiscite to the Federal Executive and shall submit to that Executive a full report of the ballot indicating the number of ballot papers printed, the number distributed and the number returned and any other relevant matters.

- (iv) A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the plebiscite may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which he/she can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for absent vote to be lodged.

22 - FEDERAL PRESIDENT

- (a) The Federal President shall, unless he/she delegates under Rule 23, attend all meetings of the Federal Council and the Federal Executive and any meeting in the Federation held by decision of the Federal Council or Federal Executive and preside at these meetings, and may, if he/she desires, and if requested, preside over any other meeting of the Federation at which he/she is present. Accumulating from the date of registration of the Federation.

- (b) Any property or funds owned, maintained, managed or controlled by or under the care and custody of each State/Territory Union, whether expressed to be held in the name of each State/Territory Union or by any other name, and whether held as real property or other property (including investments, shares and cash in any form including bank bills and interest bearing deposits) shall be and shall remain the property and funds of each State/Territory Union.
- (c) The federal funds and property of the Federation shall be controlled by the Federal Council and the Federal Executive both of which shall have power to expend the funds of the Federation for the purposes of carrying out the objects of the Federation. For the expenditure of the funds of the Federation on the general administration of the Federation and for purposes reasonably incidental to the general administration of the Federation, the prior authority of the Federal Council or the Federal Executive shall not be necessary before cheques are signed or accounts paid.
- (d) The financial year of the Federation shall end on the 30th day of June in each year.

27 - MISCONDUCT AND REMOVAL OF FEDERAL OFFICERS ETC.

- (e) Subject always to paragraph (e) of this Rule, but notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in these Rules, the Federation shall not make any loan, grant or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 unless the Federal Council or the Federal Executive of the Federation, or the Branch Committees of Management in the case of a Branch;
 - (i) has satisfied itself:
 - (a) that the making of the loan, grant or donation would be in accordance with the other Rules of the Federation; and
 - (b) in relation to a loan, that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and
 - (ii) has approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.
- (f) The provisions of paragraph (d) of this Rule shall not apply to or in relation to payments made by the Federation by way of provision for, or reimbursement of, out-of-pocket expenses incurred by persons for the benefit of the Federation.
- (g) Funds or property of the Police Association of South Australia vesting in the Federation as a result of the operation of State law shall not be deemed to be Federal funds or property. But will be deemed to be South Australian Branch funds and property at the time of the certification of this Rule for the purposes of these Rules.
- (h) Funds or property of the Australian Federal Police Association Branch vesting in the Federation as a result of the operation of these Rules shall not be deemed to be Federal funds or property, but will be deemed to be Australian Federal Police Association Branch funds and property for the purposes of these Rules.

26A - INDEMNITY

All Executive Officers of the Federation as per rule 13 and employees of the National Office who may by authority of the Federal Executive accept or incur any pecuniary liability or any costs in defending any civil proceedings taken against them directly attributable to such liability or cost of the bona fide conduct of their office shall be indemnified for any such liability or cost.

27 - MISCONDUCT AND REMOVAL OF FEDERAL OFFICERS ETC.

- (a) An Officer of the Federation or a delegate to Federal Council or member of the Federal Executive may be removed from his/her office if the Federal Council by majority resolution of members voting finds him/her guilty, in accordance with these Rules, of misappropriation of the funds of the Federation or any Branch thereof, a substantial breach of the Rules of the Federation, gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or finds that he/she has ceased, according to these Rules, to be eligible to retain his/her office.
- (b) Such person may be reported by any member under this Rule. Any charge shall be in writing and shall be forwarded to the Federal President or the Chief Executive Officer, who shall notify the person reported of the details of the report. Such a charge shall be referred immediately to all Federal Executive members for consideration of suspension, or a declaration of ineligibility to seek elected office, in accordance with Clause (d) of this rule at the next Federal Executive meeting.
- (c) The person reported shall be given not less than fourteen days' notice in writing of the time and place of the Federal Executive meeting at which the report is to be heard and considered and shall be entitled to attend such meetings and to be heard, but not to vote thereat.

28 - ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS AND INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENTS

- (d) The Federal Executive by majority may, in their discretion, suspend from office a person reported under this Rule pending determination of the report by Federal Council but in no event shall a person remain suspended for a period exceeding twenty eight days. Upon the Federal Executive exercising its discretion to suspend a person reported under this rule, the Federal Executive shall convene a meeting of Federal Council in accordance with Rule 19, so that Federal Council may hear and determine the matter.
- (e) A person shall be ineligible to nominate for office as an Officer of the Federation or member of the Federal Council if:
 - (i) he/she becomes of unsound mind; or
 - (ii) he/she ceases to be a financial member of the Federation; or
 - (iii) he/she is an undischarged bankrupt; or
 - (iv) in the case of an Honorary Officer if he/she ceases to hold the office of Branch Delegate to Federal Council.
- (f) A person shall be ineligible to retain office as an officer of the Federation (including, without limitation, membership of the Federal Council or the Federal Executive) if that person:
 - (i) Ceases to be a financial member of the Federation; or
 - (ii) In the case of an Honorary Officer, ceases to hold the office of Branch Delegate to Federal Council, and to avoid doubt in the latter case, if a person acquired the office of Branch delegate to the Federal Council by virtue only of holding another office in the relevant Branch (“the primary office”) then, subject to any rule of that Branch to the contrary, that person shall cease to hold office as a Branch delegate forthwith upon ceasing to hold the primary office.

28 - ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS AND INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENTS

- (a) The Federal Council or the Federal Executive shall, not without the agreement of the affected Branch, have power and authority to lodge or file any claims, demands, disputes, enter into Industrial Agreements or deal with other matters with the Australian Industrial Relations Commission or such other court or body as it may be necessary to file or lodge the same for determination.
- (b) The Chief Executive Officer shall not, without the agreement of any affected Branch, have the power and authority to lodge or file any claims, demands, disputes or other matters with the Australian Industrial Relations Commission or such other court or body but upon such agreement the Chief Executive Officer may take all steps necessary to lodge or file any claims or demands, disputes or other matters, provided that where the Chief Executive Officer exercises such authority, the Chief Executive Officer shall report that matter to the next meeting of the Federal Council or Federal Executive.
- (c) The Federation may be represented at the hearing of any such claim, demand, dispute, or matter, by the Chief Executive Officer or National President or by such other officers or persons as the Chief Executive Officer or National President, in conjunction with any affected Branch or Branches may decide.
- (d) Notwithstanding Clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this Rule, Branches shall have authority to lodge or file any claims, demands, disputes or other matters in relation to or affecting that Branch only and/or its members in accordance with Rules 34 and 35.

31 - FEDERAL QUORUMS

- (e) (i) In accordance with Rules 34 and 35, any industrial proceedings which affect the members of only one Branch, the Federal Council or Federal Executive shall not control the proceedings, nor appoint agents, solicitors or counsel unless requested by that Branch to do so; and
- (ii) The Federal Council or Federal Executive shall not seek or agree to an award, order or determination nor any provision in an award or industrial agreement to have operation in relation to or affecting a Branch or Branches and/or its members unless requested by the relevant Branch only or Branches to do so.

29 - SEAL

- (a) The Federation shall have a common seal which shall be kept in the exclusive custody of the Chief Executive Officer.
- (b) Any document required by law to be under seal shall have the seal of the Federation affixed thereto pursuant to a resolution of the Federal Executive and shall be executed by:
 - (i) the Federal President, a Vice President or the Treasurer; or
 - (ii) in the absence of all the officers referred to in (i), either another member of the Federal Executive or, where authorised by the Federal Council, the Chief Executive Officer.

29A - AGREEMENTS AND BANKING ARRANGEMENTS

- (a) Industrial agreements and any other documents may be executed by or on behalf of the Federal Council by the Chief Executive Officer with the authority of two members of the Federal Executive at least one of whom shall be the Federal President or his/her delegate.
- (b) All financial transactions outside the approved budget on behalf of the Federal Council shall be executed by or on behalf of the Federal Council by the Chief Executive Officer with the authority of two members of the Federal Executive, one of whom to be the Treasurer.

30 - FEDERAL VOTING

- (a) Voting at meetings of Federal Council and the Federal Executive shall be by show of hands except as otherwise determined by the relevant meeting.
- (b) At meetings of the Federal Council or the Federal Executive the Chair shall have a deliberative vote only.
- (c) In the event of a member of the Federal Council or Federal Executive being for any reason or at any time unable to be present at any meeting of the same or unable to exercise his/her vote or votes as a delegate or Executive member under these Rules;
 - (i) he/she may appoint in writing another member of the Federal Council or Federal Executive as the case may be as his/her proxy to exercise his/her vote or votes at such meeting; or
 - (ii) failing such appointment of a member of the Federal Council, his/her vote or votes may be exercised on his/her behalf by a proxy delegate representing the same Branch members of the Federation, as provided for in the Rules of the Branch affected.

31 - FEDERAL QUORUMS

The quorum at any meeting of Federal Council, or the Federal Executive shall be one half of the persons entitled to attend and vote, or vote by proxy pursuant to clause (c)(i) of Rule 30, provided that there shall be at least one quarter of the members then holding office on the body concerned present in person at all times during the meeting.

32 - FEDERAL CALLING OF A PLEBISCITE

- (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, a plebiscite of all financial members of the Federation;
 - (i) may be held for any purpose at the discretion of a majority of the Federal Council or the Federal Executive; or
 - (ii) shall be held if required by a requisition in writing and signed by not less than 10 per cent of the financial members of the Federation; provided that such requisition comprises of at least 40 financial members from each of at least 3 Branches of the Federation.
- (b) Any such plebiscite shall be conducted by secret postal ballot in accordance with Rule 21, clause (g) and shall be under the absolute control and direction of the Returning Officer appointed, pursuant to Rule 21, Clause (c).
- (c) A simple majority decision of the members voting and a majority in at least 3 of the Branches, shall be final and shall prevail over any contrary decision of the Federal Council or the Federal Executive, except as otherwise provided in these Rules.

33 - MAKING OR ALTERATION OF FEDERAL RULES

- (a) The Federal Council shall have power to make new Rules or to add to, amend, rescind or otherwise alter these Rules by resolution carried by a two-thirds majority of members of the Federal Council who are eligible to vote and a simple majority of Branches at that meeting of the Federal Council or by postal ballot of the members of the Federal Council conducted pursuant to these Rules. In the event of a tied vote within a Branch, such a vote shall be taken to be in the negative.
- (b) Notice of any proposal for the making of a new rule or for the adding to, amendment, rescissions or other alteration of any of these Rules shall be given in writing to each member of the Federal Council at least one month prior to the relevant meeting of the Federal Council or to the commencement of the postal ballot (as the case may be) provided that any such proposal may itself be amended when being considered by the relevant meeting.
- (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause (a) and (b) of this Rule, the Federal Council shall not have the power to dissolve or vary the composition or State or Territory boundaries of a Branch of the Federation, or alter any Rules of a Branch without a two-thirds majority vote of financial members of that Branch Executive in favour of such amendment dissolution or variation. Nothing in this sub-Rule shall prevent the Federal Council or the Federal Executive from establishing branches by the exercise of powers conferred on it by Rule 15A hereof.
- (d) Rules 9, 14(b), 26(g), 26(h), 33(d), 34, 35 and Part E-Transitional Provisions, Rules 9, 9A and 9B of these Rules cannot be varied except by a resolution carried by plebiscite of the membership in each and every Branch of the Federation. Such resolution will only have effect if passed by a simple majority of financial members eligible and voting in each of the Branches of the Federation.
- (e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these rules nothing in rules 6, 6A, 6B, 7(c), 7A, 7B, 8(b), 8(c), 8(d), 15(o), 15A, 26(b), 28(a), 28(b) and 33(e) or this rule shall be added to, amended, rescinded or otherwise altered until such addition, amendment, rescission or alteration is first approved by a majority decision of the Committee of Management of all branches.

A nominee for a position of Branch Executive Member shall be attached to the Region from which the nominee seeks to be elected.
 - (b) Where the Returning Officer finds that a nomination of a person as a candidate for an election for an office is defective, the Returning Officer shall, before rejecting the nomination, notify that person of the defect by facsimile or electronic mail, and where it is practicable to do so, give him or her the opportunity of remedying the defect no later than seven days from being given notice of the defect.
 - (c) A member nominated as a candidate may, by notice signed by him or her, witnessed by an elector and addressed to and lodged with the Returning Officer before the time fixed for the expiry of the period for lodging nominations, withdraw his or her consent to the nomination and that member shall thereupon be deemed not to have been nominated.
- (5) Declaration of Election where One Candidate or less than Required Number Nominated.
- (a) Where, on the expiry of the period for lodging the nomination of a candidate or candidates for election to office, the number of candidates nominated is equal to or less than the number of vacant positions to be filled by election, the Returning Officer shall declare in accordance with these Rules that the candidate or candidates as the case may be has been elected to office.
 - (b) Where, on the expiry of the period for lodging the nomination of a candidate for election for an office, no nomination for that office has been received, the Returning Officer shall, as soon as practicable after the expiry of that period, so advise the President.
- (6) Electoral Roll:
- (a) The full names and addresses of financial members of the Branch shall form the electoral roll for the election.
 - (b) The Returning Officer shall be provided by the Branch with a roll of the persons who are entitled to vote in the election, and that roll shall:
 - (i) be so provided in accordance with sub-rule (2)(a) of this rule;
 - (ii) be certified as correct by the President; and

- (iii) show the full names in alphabetical order of family name, and where the family names are identical in alphabetical order of first or given names, (the family name being, in each case, given before the first or given names relating thereto) with a consecutive number against each name in a margin at the left hand side of the family name.
 - (c) All the positions shall be elected from and by all the members of the Union at the close of the roll.
 - (d) The Returning Officer shall, at the place where he carries out his functions as Returning Officer, make the electoral roll, applicable to an election for an office, available for inspection by members of the Union, or by any person authorised by the Returning Officer, during the ordinary hours of business in the period that commences on the day determined in accordance with sub rule (2)(a) of this rule and ends on the day on which the result of the election is declared.
- (7) Receipt of Ballot Papers:
- The Returning Officer shall determine the place at and the manner in which ballot papers shall be received.
- (8) Commencement and Close of Ballot:
- Where more candidates are nominated for election than the number of positions to be filled, the Returning Officer shall determine the date of commencement of issuing ballot papers and the time and date of the close of the ballot, having regard to:
- (a) the date of expiration of the term of office of the holder of the office;
 - (b) the time required to send and return ballot papers by post;
 - (c) the time required to complete the election.
- (9) Issue of Ballot Papers:
- (a) As soon as practicable after the date determined under sub rule (8) of this rule for the commencement of issuing ballot papers in respect of an election, the Returning Officer shall issue, by posting by pre-paid post, to each person whose name is on the roll and at the address shown on the roll, a ballot paper and the other ballot material in a sealed envelope.
 - (b) The envelope shall contain:
 - (i) a ballot paper initialled by the Returning Officer or bearing a facsimile of those initials;
 - (ii) any statements and photographs provided by candidates under sub-rule (2)(c);
 - (iii) a declaration envelope, and another envelope in the form prescribed by the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations; and
 - (iv) facility for the return of the completed ballot paper by post by the voter without expense to the voter.

(10) Form of Ballot Paper:

- (a) The ballot paper for an election for an office shall be in a form that is determined by the Returning Officer.
- (b) The full names of candidates, for election for an office shall appear on the ballot paper for that election, shall have been drawn by Ballot, at the close of the nominations or, in relation to candidates whose family names are identical, in the alphabetical order of their first or given names.
- (c) The Returning Officer shall include on the ballot paper information and instructions to the voter that is substantially in accordance with the following form:
 - (i) the title of the offices to which the election relates;
 - (ii) the time and date of the close of the ballot;
 - (iii) how to mark the ballot paper in order to record a formal vote;
 - (iv) not to put on the ballot paper any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified;
 - (v) to place the ballot paper, when completed, in the declaration envelope and then to seal that envelope;
 - (vi) to complete the details on the declaration envelope; and
 - (vii) to place the declaration envelope in the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, and then to seal the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and post it to reach the Returning Officer before the time of the close of the ballot.
- (d) The Returning Officer shall obtain from the printer of the ballot papers a certificate stating the number of ballot papers printed in respect of the election.

(11) Issue of Duplicate Ballot Paper or Return Envelope:

- (a) Where on application before the time of the close of the ballot in an election, the Returning Officer is satisfied that a ballot paper or return envelope issued to a person whose name is on the electoral roll, has not been received or has been lost, destroyed or spoilt, the Returning Officer shall issue to that person a duplicate ballot paper, or return envelope, as the case may be.
- (b) An application by a person for a duplicate ballot paper, or return envelope, for an election, shall be in writing setting out the grounds on which the application is made and declaring that the person has not voted in the election and shall, if practicable, be accompanied by any evidence that is available of that non-receipt, loss, destruction or damage

(12) Ballot Boxes:

At the time of the close of the ballot, but not before, and in the presence of the scrutineers, or where a scrutineer has been informed in accordance with this rule but is not present at the appointed time in their absence, the Returning Officer shall:

- (a) collect all envelopes from the address nominated for the purpose of receiving ballot papers;
- (b) take all the envelopes so collected to the place of count and proceed to make the count; and
- (c) keep all those envelopes in safe custody until the count is complete.

(13) Preservation of Ballot Papers:

The Returning Officer shall make provision for the preservation of all election material for a period of not less than one year after the date of the election.

(14) Duties of Returning Officer:

- (a) The Returning Officer, before proceeding to count the number of votes to ascertain which candidate is successful in the election, shall:
 - (i) remove the declaration envelope from the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer;
 - (ii) check each declaration against the member's name on the electoral roll and, if the voting papers are in order, mark the roll; and
 - (iii) when all the declarations are checked and cleared, open the declaration envelopes containing the ballot paper and proceed with the count.
 - (b) The Returning Officer shall reject as informal a ballot paper that:
 - (i) does not bear the initials of the Returning Officer or the facsimile of those initials;
 - (ii) has upon it a mark or writing by which the voter can be identified; or
 - (iii) is not marked substantially in accordance with the instructions; or
 - (iv) does not indicate the member's vote.
 - (c) Where, during the scrutiny, the Returning Officer is informed by a scrutineer appointed under this rule that the scrutineer objects to a ballot paper being admitted as formal, or rejected as informal, as the case may be, the Returning Officer shall decide the matter and endorse their decision on the ballot paper.
 - (d) Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.
 - (e) Voting for an office shall be by means of a first-past-the-post ballot:
 - (i) When only one candidate is to be elected and there are two or more candidates, the elector shall mark their vote on the ballot paper by placing a cross (X) or tick opposite the name of the candidate for whom they vote, and the candidate with the highest number of votes shall be elected.
 - (ii) When two or more candidates are to be elected for an office, the elector shall record their vote on the ballot paper by placing a cross (X) or tick on the ballot paper in the square opposite the name of the candidate or candidates for whom they wish to be elected but is not to mark votes for more candidates than the number of offices to be filled, and the candidates with the highest number of votes shall be elected.
 - (f) The Returning Officer may, from time to time, adjourn the scrutiny and count to a day and hour to be fixed by the Returning Officer and notified to the scrutineers.
- (15) A ballot paper shall not be informal for any reason other than the reasons stated in this rule but shall be given effect to the voter's intention so far as their intention is clear and, in particular, when only one candidate is to be elected and there are only two candidates a ballot paper shall not be informal by reason only for the voter having indicated their vote by a numeral 1 instead of a cross (X) or tick.

(16) Scrutineers:

- (a) Each candidate nominated for election may, by written notice given to the Returning Officer, not less than seven days prior to the close of the ballot, appoint a member of the Branch to be a scrutineer in respect of that election, being a member other than a candidate, and may by notice in like manner appoint another such member to carry out the functions of scrutineer where the first mentioned does not carry out those functions.
- (b) Subject to sub rule (16) (c) of this rule, a scrutineer appointed under these Rules may:
 - (i) be present while the Returning Officer carries out the duties provided under this Rule;
 - (ii) direct the attention of the Returning Officer to any irregularity concerning the issue of ballot papers, the admission of any envelope to scrutiny, the admission of a ballot paper as formal, the rejection of a ballot paper as informal or the counting of the votes;
 - (iii) where any scrutineer objects to the inclusion of or exclusion of a ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall mark the ballot paper “admitted” or “rejected” according to the Returning Officer’s decision on the objection and initial such marking, and such decision shall be final;
- (c) Where a scrutineer:
 - (i) interrupts the scrutiny otherwise than in accordance with sub rule (16) (b) of this rule, or
 - (ii) fails to carry out a lawful request by the Returning Officer,the Returning Officer may direct the scrutineer to leave the place where the scrutiny is being conducted.

(17) Declaration of Results:

- (a) The Returning Officer, on completion of a count, shall forthwith declare the result of an election in the presence of any scrutineers and candidates who may be present at the time.
- (b) The Returning Officer shall also declare the result of the election by giving notice of the result in writing to the President of the Branch at its Registered Office.
- (c) The Returning Officer shall, in the manner and at the time of declaring the result of an election, declare in respect of the election:
 - (i) the number of ballot papers, other than duplicate ballot papers, issued;
 - (ii) the number of duplicate ballot papers issued;
 - (iii) the number of ballot papers admitted as formal;
 - (iv) the number of ballot papers rejected as informal;
 - (v) the number of unused ballot papers;
 - (vi) the number of ballot papers certified by the printer;
 - (vii) the number of votes admitted as recorded in favour of each candidate for an office.

(18) Powers of the Returning Officer:

The Returning Officer may take such action and give such directions as are considered necessary in order to ensure the secrecy of the ballot and that no irregularities occur in or in connection with the election or to remedy any inconsistency or inadequacy that arises in the application of the rules of the Branch to the conduct of an election for an office.

52AP - ELECTIONS FOR BRANCH OFFICE BEARERS AND FEDERAL COUNCIL DELEGATES

- (1) The election of Branch Office Bearers and Federal Council Delegates shall occur immediately upon the commencement of the meeting of the Executive - Elect to be held within 10 working days of election to office in the year of election.
- (2) The elections will be conducted in the following order:
 - President
 - Senior Vice President
 - Vice President
 - Treasurer
 - Federal Council Delegates
- (3) Each election will commence with the Returning Officer calling for nominations. Nominations shall be in writing, signed by the nominee and two nominators and shall be handed to the Returning Officer.
- (4) No person who has been elected to an Officer Bearer's position may be nominated as a candidate for any other Officer Bearer's position except in respect to Federal Council Delegates. The office of President shall be ex officio a delegate to the Federal Council. Where the Branch is entitled to more than a single delegate, there shall be an election for such additional positions in accordance with this rule.
- (5) Where the Returning Officer finds that a nomination of a person as a candidate for an election for an office is defective, the Returning Officer shall, before rejecting the nomination, notify that person of the defect and where it is practicable to do so, give him or her the opportunity of remedying the defect within a reasonable period as determined by the Returning Officer.
- (6) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position the Returning Officer shall have ballot papers prepared containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot indicating the number to be elected and the date and the time of the closing of the ballot. If no more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position, the Returning Officer shall declare the nominee(s) elected.
- (7) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the ballot papers and shall initial every ballot paper prior to distribution.
- (8) The Returning Officer shall provide a ballot paper to each member of the Executive in attendance at the meeting and shall arrange for the use of a receptacle to which ballot papers shall be returned to him/her and after the closing of the ballot the Returning Officer shall collect the ballot papers from such receptacle.
- (9) The Returning Officer shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the ballot is a secret ballot.
- (10) Voting shall be on a "first past the post" basis. A voter shall record his/her vote by placing a mark on the ballot paper in the square opposite the name of as many candidates as there are vacancies to be filled.

52AQ - ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- (11) A member of the Executive - Elect who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which he/she can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing time and date for absent votes to be lodged.
- (12) Upon collecting the completed ballot papers from the receptacle, the Returning Officer shall count all the votes cast and, and declare the result of the ballot. In the event of a tie occurring, the result shall be determined by the Returning Officer drawing lots in the presence of the tied candidates.
- (13) Any candidate may if he/she so desires appoint a scrutineer who is a member of the Branch to represent him/her at the ballot. Any candidate appointing a scrutineer shall, before the closing of nominations, notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer, who:
 - (a) shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count, but the Returning Officer shall have the final determination of any vote or queries;
 - (b) shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election; and
 - (c) shall not attempt to influence any member at the time such member is casting his/her vote.
- (14) Upon declaration of the ballot, the Returning Officer shall seal and retain all ballot papers for a period of twelve months after the conduct of the ballot.
- (15) The Returning Officer may take such action and give such directions as are considered necessary in order to ensure the secrecy of the ballot and that no irregularities occur in or in connection with the election or to remedy any inconsistency or inadequacy that arises in the application of the rules of the Branch to the conduct of an election for an office.

52AQ - ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- (1) The Annual Conference of the Branch shall be the supreme authority over all matters affecting the general management and policies of the Branch.
- (2) The Annual Conference shall be held each year in November, with the date and other arrangements being determined by the Executive.
- (3) The following persons shall comprise the members of an Annual Conference:
 - (a) the members of the Executive, each of whom shall have one vote in respect to any question before the Conference; and
 - (b) members of the Executive - Elect attending Conference (if any), shall be entitled to vote, by virtue of that position alone, in respect to any question before the Conference;
- (4) At the Annual Conference 8 members shall form a quorum.
- (5) In any year in which there has been an election for members of the Executive, the office of the members of the Executive-Elect shall commence.

- (8) The President through the Executive shall prepare the Agenda for Conference, and the Agenda shall be forwarded to each member of the Executive at least 30 days before Conference.

52AR - DELETED

52AS - SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- (1) Members may, jointly or individually, make a request in writing to the President for the holding of a Special General Meeting of the members of the Branch in order to discuss a specific matter or matters of concern that are such importance that the matter or matters cannot be held over to be dealt with at an Annual Conference. Such matter or matters of concern shall be specified in the written request.
- (2) The Officer Bearers of the Branch (President, Vice Presidents and the Treasurer) are empowered to call a Special General Meeting of the members of the Branch if, in their opinion, such a meeting is warranted and in the best interests of the Branch, provided that they shall be required to call such a meeting where the request for the meeting is made by not less than 10% of the total membership of the Branch. Where a Special General Meeting is required to be called, it shall be held within 21 days of the request being made to the President.
- (3) The only agenda item for a Special General Meeting shall be the matter or matters of concern specified in the request for the meeting.
- (4) The quorum for a Special General Meeting shall be no less than 5% of the total number of financial members of the Branch.
- (5) Notice of a Special General Meeting shall be given to members generally in the manner the Executive believe appropriate.
- (6) Any decision made at a Special General Meeting shall be binding upon the Executive.

52AT - REFERENDUMS

- (1) In addition to the Executive, an Annual Conference, Special Conference or Special General Meeting shall have power to remit any question, which in its opinion is of more than ordinary importance, for determination by secret ballot of all the members.
- (2) The Returning Officer, appointed pursuant the Rules for Elections, shall forward a referendum ballot paper to each financial member of the Branch. Such referendum ballot paper shall contain full particulars regarding the matter upon which a decision is asked and shall clearly state the date of the closing of the ballot. The system of distribution, voting instructions and return of referendum ballot papers shall be determined by the Returning Officer.
- (3) The Returning Officer shall certify to the Executive the result of the referendum which shall be binding upon all members of the Branch.
- (4) The result of any referendum will be determined upon the returned vote whereby sixty five percent (65%) or greater in favour will be deemed to be a majority result. Should 65% in favour not be reached the question put to vote will lapse.

52AU - MONIES

- (1) All monies and other valuables subscribed by and obtained on behalf of the members of the Branch shall be the property of the Branch as a whole and not the individual members; provided that for legal purposes connected with the Branch, all monies, valuables, assets and property of the Branch shall be deemed to be that of the President.
- (2) The Executive shall have the control of all property of the Branch.

52AV - MISAPPROPRIATION OF FUNDS

- (1) The Executive may institute legal proceedings against any person or persons misappropriating, withholding or receiving by imposition any part of the funds, property or assets of the Branch. The Executive shall seek to recover the monies so misappropriated, withheld or received by imposition.
- (2) Should the Executive misappropriate or withhold the monies, property or assets of the Branch, they shall severally and jointly be held liable to make good the full amount so misappropriated.

52AW - AUDITOR

- (1) The Executive shall appoint an approved Auditor in accordance with section 256 of Schedule 1B of the Act, and such Auditor shall:
 - (a) conduct an annual audit of the accounts of the Branch, including the:
 - (i) balance sheet of the assets and liabilities of the Branch;
 - (ii) statement of the receipts and expenditure of the Branch; and
 - (iii) sources and application of funds statement;

 - (c) shall not interfere with or attempt to influence any member at the time the member is casting their vote.
- (13) Where a casual vacancy arises in the position of Branch Executive Member, the Branch Executive shall take action to fill the casual vacancy by a secret postal ballot of financial members of the Branch provided that:
 - (a) where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs does not exceed one year, the Branch Executive may fill the vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the Federation; and
 - (b) where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs exceeds one year, the Branch Executive may fill a vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the Federation until an election is held, provided that no person so appointed shall hold office for a period exceeding three months.
- (14) The Branch Returning Officer, in conducting an election pursuant to the previous subrule, shall determine the dates for the opening and closing of nominations and the opening and closing of the ballot and shall report the result of the ballot to the Branch Executive.
- (15) Any person elected to fill a casual vacancy shall take office on the date of declaration of the election and hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the person they replace.
- (16) In all other respects the election conducted to fill a casual vacancy shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of these rules dealing with normal elections.
- (17) A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which they can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for absent vote to be lodged.

52CG - SYSTEM OF VOTING

- (1) The Branch Returning Officer shall count all first preference votes cast for each candidate and if any candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes they shall be declared elected.
- (2) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, the candidate with the lowest number of first preference votes shall be eliminated and second preference votes of the eliminated candidate shall be allocated to the remaining candidates in accord with the voters' preference. If, on a recount of those votes, a candidate has an absolute majority of votes they shall be declared elected.
- (3) If a candidate then has an absolute majority they shall be declared elected but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes the process of eliminating the candidate with the lowest number of votes at that stage and allocating the next preference votes of that candidate shall be repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes and is elected.
- (4) To determine the next successful candidate the Branch Returning Officer shall allocate the second preference votes of the candidate who has been elected to each of the other candidates in accord with the voters' preference including to the candidates eliminated pursuant to subrules (2) and (3) above.
- (5) The remaining vacancies shall be filled one by one in the manner provided above. This process shall continue until 4 persons have been declared elected. Provided that where the second preference vote of an elected candidate is given to another elected candidate the Branch Returning Officer shall allocate the third preference vote of the first mentioned elected candidate to other candidates in accordance with the voter's third preference. This proviso applies equally where second and succeeding preference votes are given to two or more elected candidates.
- (6) If on any count of the votes, two or more candidates have an equal number of votes and one or more of them has to be eliminated the Branch Returning Officer shall determine by lot which candidate or candidates shall be eliminated provided that, if one of the tied candidates is a retiring office holder from the position subject to the ballot, then the retiring office holder shall be deemed to have received the higher number of votes.

52CH - ELECTION OF BRANCH OFFICERS

- (1) Elections for positions of Branch officer shall be conducted at the first meeting of the Branch Executive after the annual general meeting in the year in which elections are required to be conducted.
- (2) The Branch Returning Officer shall call for nominations for positions of Branch officer by advising each person eligible to nominate and vote in accordance with rule 52CA in writing of the positions to be filled and the time and date on which nominations close.
- (3) Nominations for the position of Branch officers shall close at 5.00 p.m. on the day immediately preceding the date of the first Branch Executive meeting following the annual general meeting.
- (4) A nomination for a position of Branch officer must be signed by the nominee and two persons eligible for election as a Branch officer.
- (5) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received for compliance with the requirements of these Rules and shall reject any that do not so comply; provided that in the event of their finding a defect in any nomination he/she shall before rejecting the nomination notify the person concerned of the defect, and, where practicable to do so, give the person concerned the opportunity of remedying the defect where practicable within not less than seven days of the person concerned having been so notified.
- (6) If there be no more nominations than there are vacancies for a position, the Branch Returning Officer shall declare the nominated person elected to the position.

- (7) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for the position, the Branch Returning Officer shall prepare ballot papers containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot, indicating the number to be elected to each position and the manner in which votes shall be recorded.
- (8) The Branch Returning Officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the ballot papers.
- (9) The Branch Returning Officer shall initial every ballot paper prior to its distribution.
- (10) The Branch Returning Officer shall distribute ballot papers to persons eligible to vote attending the meeting and provide a ballot box for the receipt of completed ballot papers.
- (11) The Branch Returning Officer shall, when voting has been completed and ballot papers placed in the ballot box, open the ballot box and count the votes.
- (12) The Branch Returning Officer shall first count the votes for the office of Branch President and declare elected the candidate receiving the highest number of first preference votes.
- (13) The Branch Returning Officer shall, after declaring the election for the position of Branch President, count the votes for the positions of Vice President. Where the person declared elected as Branch President is also a candidate for the positions of Branch Vice President, the second preference votes for the person elected to the position of Branch President shall be counted as first preference votes for the candidates for the positions of Branch Vice President. The person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected as Senior Vice President and the person receiving the second highest number of votes shall be declared elected as Junior Vice President.
- (14) The Branch Returning Officer shall, after declaring the election for the positions of Vice-Presidents, count the votes for the positions of Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer. Where a person declared elected for the positions of Branch President or Vice-President is also a candidate for the positions of Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer, the second preference votes for the person elected to the position of Branch President or Vice-President shall be counted as first preference votes for the candidates for the position of Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer. The person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected as Treasurer and the person receiving the second highest number of votes shall be declared elected as Assistant Treasurer.
- (15) The Branch Returning Officer shall declare the result of the election by making a written report to the Branch Executive setting out the number of ballot papers printed, the number distributed, the number returned, the number completed, the number of votes received by each candidate and any other relevant matters.
- (16) A candidate may appoint a scrutineer who is a financial member of the Federation to represent them at the ballot. The candidate appointing the scrutineer shall, before the closing of nominations, notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer, who:
 - (a) shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count but the Branch Returning Officer shall have the final determination of any votes so queried;
 - (b) shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election; and
 - (c) shall not interfere with or attempt to influence any member at the time the member is casting their vote.

(17) Casual Vacancies

- (a) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a member of the Branch Executive, the Branch Executive shall take immediate action to have such vacancy filled by secret postal ballot of all financial members of the Branch provided that;
 - (i) an election shall not be required where the unexpired portion of the term of office does not exceed three quarters of the term, in which case the Branch Committee may fill the vacancy by appointing an eligible member of the Branch; and
 - (ii) where an election is to be conducted to fill the vacancy, the Branch Executive may appoint an eligible member of the Branch to fill the vacancy until an election is held.
- (b) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of a Branch Officer or a delegate to Federal Council, the Branch executive shall take immediate action to have such vacancy filled by an election conducted at a meeting of the Branch Executive.

- (18) A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which he/she can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for absent vote to be lodged.

44 - MANAGER - FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

- (a) The Manager:
 - (i) must not influence, or attempt to influence, the outcome of an election;
 - (ii) must conduct an election under these rules;
 - (iii) may take the action, and give the directions, the Manager considers reasonably necessary to ensure that the processes under which an election is conducted are transparent; and

47 - CALLING FOR NOMINATIONS

- (iv) must ensure suitable arrangements are made with Australia Post for the return of ballot papers to a box or locked bag at a post office.
- (b) The Manager, other than an electoral officer, may take the action, and give the directions, the Manager considers reasonably necessary:
 - (i) to ensure no irregularities happen in the election; or
 - (ii) to remedy a procedural defect that appears to the Manager to exist about the election.
- (c) To ensure the integrity of an election, the address for return of ballot papers must not be the Branch's usual postal address.

45 - CLOSING DAY AND TIME FOR NOMINATIONS

- (a) The Manager must fix the opening day and closing day for nominations for an office or for a position.
- (b) The closing day must be at least 28 days after notice is given under rule 47.
- (c) Nominations open at midday on the opening day and close at midday on the closing day.

46 - STARTING AND FINISHING DAYS OF BALLOT

- (a) If a ballot becomes necessary under rule 50, the Manager must fix the start and finish days for the ballot to decide the result of the election.
- (b) The start day must not be before the closing day for nominations for the offices or the positions to be filled at the election.

47 - CALLING FOR NOMINATIONS

- (a) The Manager must call for nominations for the offices or the positions to be filled by notice given to Members in one of the following ways:
 - (i) by post to each Member at the address recorded in the Branch Register;
 - (ii) if the Branch publishes a journal or newsletter that it gives to its members free of charge, by advertisement in that journal or newsletter; or
 - (iii) in a daily newspaper circulating in the area where the Branch's members live or work.
- (b) The notice must state:
 - (i) The opening day for nominations;
 - (ii) the closing day for nominations;
 - (iii) that nominations for an office or a position:
 - (1) open at midday on the opening day; and
 - (2) close at midday on the closing day;

 - (vii) that only a person who was a Member 30 days before the opening time for nominations may vote in the election; and
 - (viii) that the ballot will be decided by a first-past-the-post system of voting.
- (c) Without limitation to sub-rule (b) the Manager may provide a nomination form for the purposes of nominating.

48 - NOMINATION PROCEDURE

- (a) A nomination for an office or a position must be written, signed by the nominee, be in accordance with rule 42 and be given to the Manager before nominations close.
- (b) A person may not nominate for more than 1 office or 1 position, provided that a Member nominating for an office of the Branch may also nominate for an office of a Sub-branch.
- (c) The Manager must accept a nomination if:
- (i) it complies with sub-rule (a) and rule 42;
 - (ii) the nominee is a Member; and
 - (iii) the election is for a position for which the candidate is entitled to nominate.
- (d) A candidate may withdraw their nomination by written notice given to the Manager no later than 7 days after nominations close.

49 - WHAT HAPPENS IF A NOMINATION IS DEFECTIVE

- (a) The Manager must reject a nomination given to the Manager after nominations have closed.
- (b) If a nomination for an office or a position is defective, other than because the nominee is not qualified to hold the office or position or because the nomination was made after the closing time, the Manager must:
- (i) reject it;
 - (ii) give the nominee notice of the defect; and
 - (iii) if practicable, give the nominee an opportunity to remedy the defect.
- (c) If practicable, the notice must be given before nominations close.
- (d) Failure to give the notice does not invalidate the election.

50 - WHEN A BALLOT MUST BE HELD

- (a) If there are more candidates for election to an office or a position than the number to be elected, the Manager must conduct a secret postal ballot in accordance with these Election Procedure Rules.

51 - ELECTION WITHOUT BALLOT

- (a) The Manager must declare a candidate elected to an office or a position if:
 - (i) nominations have closed;
 - (ii) the candidate does not hold another office or position; and
 - (iii) if the election is for the Branch President, a Regional Representative or a Conference Delegate the candidate is the only candidate.

52 - ROLL – PREPARATION

- (a) A roll for a ballot must be prepared at the direction of the Manager.
- (b) The Manager must ensure the roll:
 - (i) states:
 - (1) the name of each person who is an eligible member of the Branch in alphabetical order; and
 - (2) each eligible member's address, opposite their name; and
 - (ii) is completed when nominations for the election close.
- (c) The Branch must give the Manager:
 - (i) a copy of its Branch Register or part of the Branch Register relevant to the election being conducted, as the case may be; and
 - (ii) access to the Branch's records reasonably necessary for the Manager to ensure the roll is accurate.

53 - ROLL – INSPECTION

- (a) The Manager must make the roll for the election available for inspection:
 - (i) in the period that:
 - (1) starts on the day after the roll must be completed under rule 52; and
 - (2) ends 30 days after the result of the election is declared;
 - and
 - (ii) at the Manager's office during business hours.
- (b) A candidate, Member or a person authorised by the Manager may inspect the roll, free of charge.
- (c) If during the period stated in sub-rule (a), a candidate or Member asks for a copy of the roll or a stated part of the roll, the Manager must give the person the copy, free of charge.

54 - WHEN SOMEONE CAN CLAIM A RIGHT TO VOTE

- (a) Despite sub-rule 52(b), if an eligible member's name does not appear on the roll, the applicant may apply to the Manager to have the member's name included on the roll.

- (b) If the Manager is satisfied the applicant is an eligible member, the Manager must include the applicant's name on the roll.

55 - BALLOT PAPERS

- (a) A ballot paper for the election must:
- (i) have a watermark or other distinctive pattern, that prevents it from being reproduced other than by the Manager or a person authorised by the Manager;
 - (ii) be of paper that will hide a vote marked on it from view when it is folded once;
 - (iii) be a different colour from the colour used for ballot papers at the 2 previous elections held for the Branch;
 - (iv) list the names of each candidate once only for each office or each position the election is for, with the surname first, followed by the candidate's other names;
 - (v) state how the voter may vote;
 - (vi) state that the voter must fill in and sign the voting declaration or the vote will not be counted; and
 - (vii) state that the voter must return the ballot paper to the Manager so it is received on or before the finish day of the ballot.
- (b) The order of names on the ballot paper must be decided by lot.
- (c) If 2 or more candidates have the same surname and first names, the candidates must be distinguished in an appropriate way.

56 - DISTRIBUTING VOTING MATERIAL

- (a) The Manager must post the following things (the "voting material") to each voter:
- (i) a ballot paper initialled by the Manager;
 - (ii) an unsealed reply-paid envelope (a "return envelope") addressed to the Manager;
 - (iii) a declaration envelope;
 - (iv) a supporting statement provided by a candidate under sub-rule (f) (placed in the same order as the candidates appear on the ballot); and
 - (v) any other material the Manager considers appropriate for the ballot including directions to the eligible member to comply with these Election Procedure Rules and cast a valid vote.
- (b) Voting material must be posted to each voter:
- (i) in a sealed envelope to the voter's address on the roll; and
 - (ii) as soon as practicable, but no earlier than 2 days before the starting day of the ballot.
- (c) The voting declaration must state: "I certify that I am the person whose name appears on this envelope and I have voted on the ballot paper enclosed".

- (d) If a voter gives the Manager a notice that the voter will be at an address other than the address stated on the roll when voting material is to be given, the Manager must post the material to the other address.
- (e) A ballot paper or ballot envelope must not be marked in a way that could identify the voter.
- (g) Each candidate may submit to the Manager a supporting statement for their candidature which:
 - (i) is to be submitted with their nomination;
 - (ii) is on a single (one sided) A4 sheet;
 - (iii) may include statements, photographs and/or images; and
 - (iv) must be placed (placed in the same order as the candidates appear on the ballot), by the Branch, on the Branch website when nominations close.
- (h) The Manager will reject a supporting statement submitted under sub-rule (f) if it:
 - (i) exceeds a single (one sided) A4 sheet; or
 - (ii) contains statements, photographs and/or images which in the opinion of the Manager:
 - (A) are false;
 - (B) are misleading;
 - (C) may lead to an irregularity; and/or
 - (D) which do not strictly comply with these Part CF2 rules

, and a supporting statement rejected under this sub-rule, is not a supporting statement for the purposes of sub-rule (f).
- (i) A candidate whose submitted supporting statement is rejected under sub-rule (g) will be:
 - (i) promptly notified by the Manager of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection; and
 - (ii) given one further opportunity of not more than 2 working days, from the time of being notified, to provide to the Manager a supporting statement under sub-rule (f).
- (j) The Manager must notify the voters, when providing the voting material, if a candidate has not provided a supporting statement under sub-rule (f).

57 - MANAGER MUST KEEP A BALLOT BOX

- (a) The Manager must get a ballot box and:
 - (i) keep the box in a safe place; and
 - (ii) seal the box in a way that:
 - (1) allows voting material to be put in it until the ballot finishes; and
 - (2) prevents voting material from being taken from it until votes for the ballot are to be counted.

58 - DUPLICATE VOTING MATERIAL

- (a) This rule applies if voting material posted to a voter:
 - (i) has not been received by the voter;
 - (ii) has been lost or destroyed; or
 - (iii) if the document is a ballot paper, has been spoilt.
- (b) The voter may apply to the Manager for a duplicate of the document.
- (c) The application must:
 - (i) be received by the Manager on or before the finish day of the ballot;
 - (ii) state the grounds on which it is made;
 - (iii) if practicable, be substantiated by evidence verifying, or tending to verify, the grounds;
 - (iv) state that the voter has not voted at the ballot; and
 - (v) if the document is a spoilt ballot paper, be accompanied by the ballot paper.
- (d) If the application complies with sub-rule (c), the Manager must:
- (e)
 - (i) if the document is a spoilt ballot paper:
 - (1) mark "spoilt" on the paper;
 - (2) initial the paper beside that marking and keep the paper; and
 - (3) give a fresh ballot paper to the voter; or
 - (ii) otherwise, give a duplicate of the document to the voter.

59 - HOW LONG BALLOT IS OPEN

- (a) A ballot must remain open for:
 - (i) at least 14 days; and
 - (ii) no longer than 21 days.

60 - HOW TO VOTE

- (a) A voter may vote only by completing the following steps:
 - (i) completing a ballot paper by:
 - (1) writing a tick or a cross in the square opposite the name or names of the number of candidates the voter may vote for under rule 61;
 - (2) complying with the instructions on the paper about how to vote;
 - (3) putting the ballot paper in a ballot envelope;
 - (4) sealing the ballot envelope;
 - (5) filling in and signing the voting declaration for the ballot paper;
 - (6) putting the voting declaration and the ballot envelope in the return envelope;
 - (7) sealing the return envelope;
 - (8) complying with any direction under sub-rule 56(a)(v); and
 - (9) returning the return envelope to the Manager so that the envelope is received on or before the finish day for the ballot.

61 - HOW MANY VOTES MAY BE CAST

- (a) A voter may vote only for one of the candidates on a ballot paper.

62 - HOW MANAGER MUST DEAL WITH VOTING MATERIAL

- (a) The Manager must put all voting material returned to the Manager in the ballot box until voting has ended.
- (b) If, after the finishing day for the election, the Manager receives a return envelope apparently containing a ballot paper for the election, the Manager must:
 - (i) keep the envelope sealed;
 - (ii) mark the envelope "Received by the Manager after the finishing day for the ballot"; and
 - (iii) keep the envelope in safe custody, but separate from return envelopes received before or on the finishing day.

63 - SCRUTINEERS – APPOINTMENT

- (a) A candidate may:
 - (i) act personally as a scrutineer; or
 - (ii) appoint another person (an “appointee”) as a scrutineer for the candidate.
- (b) An appointment must be in writing and signed by the candidate.
- (c) A candidate must notify the Manager of the name of the candidate’s appointee as soon as possible after the appointee is appointed.
- (d) The Manager may refuse to allow an appointee to act as a scrutineer if:
 - (i) the Manager asks to inspect the appointment as a scrutineer; and
 - (ii) the appointee does not produce it.

64 - SCRUTINEERS’ RIGHTS

- (a) Subject to rule 65, a scrutineer may be present when:
 - (i) ballot papers or other voting material for a ballot are prepared and given to voters;
 - (ii) voting material is received and put in safe custody under rule 62; and
 - (iii) votes are counted.

65 - SCRUTINEERS - NUMBERS ATTENDING

- (a) Each candidate may have only 1 scrutineer exercising a right under rule 64 for each official present where the ballot is being conducted.
- (b) In sub-rule (a):
 - (i) “official” means:
 - (1) if the ballot is being conducted by the electoral commission, an electoral officer; or
 - (2) if the ballot is not being conducted by the electoral commission:
 - (A) the Manager; or
 - (B) any other person appointed by the Manager to exercise the Manager’s powers for the election.

66 - INITIAL SCRUTINY OF VOTING MATERIAL

- (a) As soon as possible after the ballot finishes, the Manager must:
 - (i) seal the ballot box in a way that prevents voting material from being put in it; and
 - (ii) take the ballot box to the place where votes are to be counted.

- (b) The Manager must then:
 - (i) unseal the ballot box;
 - (ii) take out the return envelopes;
 - (iii) open each return envelope;
 - (iv) remove and examine the declaration and mark off the voter's name on the roll; and
 - (v) ensure the declaration is signed.
- (c) After complying with sub-rule (b), the Manager must put the ballot envelopes in a container and the declarations into another container if satisfied each declaration is signed.
- (d) However, the Manager must not put a ballot envelope or declaration in the containers mentioned in sub-rule (c) if:
 - (i) the Manager reasonably believes the voter to whom it was sent did not sign the declaration; or
 - (ii) the person named on the declaration is not the person to whom it was sent.
- (e) Sub-rule (d) does not apply if the Manager is satisfied the person who filled in and signed the declaration:
 - (i) is a voter;
 - (ii) has not previously voted in the ballot; and
 - (iii) has a reasonable explanation for using someone else's ballot material.
- (f) The Manager must keep ballot envelopes and declarations excluded under sub-rule (d) separate from other ballot envelopes and declarations.
- (g) A declaration is only valid if:
 - (i) it complies with sub-rule (b)(iv) and (v); and
 - (ii) sub-rule (d) does not apply.
- (h) A valid declaration must be accepted as valid and an invalid declaration must be rejected by the Manager.
- (i) If a declaration is accepted as valid by the Manager, the Manager must:
 - (i) note the acceptance of validity on the declaration; and
 - (ii) record the correct ballot on the roll against the name of the voter who signed the declaration.
- (j) After separating the ballot envelopes and declarations, the Manager must, in the following order:
 - (i) seal the container holding declarations;
 - (ii) open the ballot envelopes not excluded under sub-rule (d) and take out the ballot papers;

68 - SCRUTINEERS' OBJECTIONS

- (iii) if a ballot envelope contains more than 1 ballot paper for each office the election is for, mark each of the ballot papers from the envelope "informal under sub-rule 67(b)"; and
- (iv) put all of the ballot papers in the ballot box.

67 - COUNTING VOTES

- (a) To count votes, the Manager must:
 - (i) admit the formal votes and reject the informal votes;
 - (ii) count the formal votes, and record the number for each candidate; and
 - (iii) count the informal votes.
- (b) A vote is informal only if:
 - (i) the ballot paper is not initialled by the Manager and the Manager is not satisfied the paper is authentic;
 - (ii) the ballot paper is marked in a way that allows the voter to be identified;
 - (iii) the ballot paper is not marked in a way that makes it clear how the voter is meant to vote;
 - (iv) the ballot paper does not comply with a direction given under sub-rule 56(a)(v); or
 - (v) the ballot paper was taken from a ballot envelope that contained another ballot paper for the office the election is for.

68 - SCRUTINEERS' OBJECTIONS

- (a) Before votes are counted, a scrutineer may advise the Manager that the scrutineer considers an error has been made in conducting the ballot.
- (b) When votes are counted, a scrutineer may:
 - (i) object to a ballot paper being admitted as formal or rejected as informal by the Manager; or
 - (ii) advise the Manager that the scrutineer considers an error has been made in conducting the ballot or counting votes.
- (c) If a scrutineer advises the Manager under sub-rules (a) or (b)(ii), the Manager must:
 - (i) decide whether the error has been made; and
 - (ii) if appropriate, direct action to correct or mitigate the error.
- (d) If a scrutineer objects under sub-rule (b)(i), the Manager must:
 - (i) decide whether the ballot paper is to be admitted or rejected; and
 - (ii) note the decision on the ballot paper and initial the note.

69 - DIRECTION BY MANAGER TO LEAVE COUNT

- (a) The Manager may direct a person to leave the place where votes are being counted if the person:
 - (i) does not have the right to be present at the count; or
 - (ii) interrupts the count, other than to exercise a scrutineer's right.

70 - HOW RESULT IS DECIDED

- (a) The method of deciding the result of a ballot is by a first-past-the-post system.
- (b) The candidate, in the election concerned, securing the highest number of votes will be declared elected.
- (c) This rule is subject to rule 71.

71 - WHAT HAPPENS IF VOTES FOR 2 OR MORE CANDIDATES ARE EQUAL

- (a) If the Manager cannot decide which candidate is elected to an office or a position because of votes cast for 2 or more candidates are equal, the Manager must decide which candidate is elected by drawing lots.
- (b) A decision under sub-rule a) must be made in the presence of any scrutineer who wishes to attend.

72 - COLLEGIATE ELECTIONS

- (a) For the purposes of this rule:
 - (i) the "Meeting" is the first meeting of the Branch Executive next following the declaration of elections for the offices of Branch Regional Representatives in any year of election of Branch Regional Representatives under rule 40.
 - (ii) "attending Branch Executive Members" are the members of the Branch Executive attending in person at the Meeting; and
 - (iii) the Election Procedure Rules apply with such changes as are necessary to give them effect.
- (b) The electoral college will be the Branch Executive.
- (c) The Branch Industrial Manager will, at least 7 days prior to the Meeting, provide the members of the Branch Executive with:
 - (i) notice that elections in accordance with this rule will be conducted by the Manager at the Meeting;
 - (ii) a copy of this rule; and
 - (iii) the contact details for the Manager.
- (d) The Manager will, at the Meeting, call for nominations of candidates from amongst the members of the electoral college, provided that a member of the electoral college who will not be in attendance at the Meeting may advise the Manager in writing, in advance of the Meeting, that they will stand as a candidate, and subject to their nomination being seconded by an attending Branch Executive Member they will be a candidate in the election concerned.
- (e) Nominations of candidates, other than as provided for in sub-rule (d) may be made verbally to the Manager.

- (f) Nominations may be verbally seconded by another member of the electoral college.
- (g) If at the close of nominations, only the required numbers of candidates have been nominated for the offices concerned, the Manager will declare those candidates elected and promptly advise the Meeting.
- (h) If there are more than the required number of candidates for any of the offices concerned, the Manager will in relation to those offices conduct, at the Meeting, a secret ballot of the attending Branch Executive Members.
- (i) A candidate may appoint a scrutineer.
- (j) The Manager will, in the presence of any appointed scrutineers (if any), arrange for the preparation of ballot papers which have the candidates' names in alphabetical order.
- (k) The Manager will:
 - (i) initial and hand to each attending Branch Executive Member a ballot paper;
 - (ii) notify each attending Branch Executive Member of the opening and closing times of the ballot;
 - (iii) instruct the attending Branch Executive Members:
 - (1) that they must not disclose their identity when voting;
 - (2) that any ballot paper marked in a way that discloses the identity of the voter will be discarded and will not be counted in the ballot; and
 - (iv) provide, and secure, a ballot box.
- (l) Each attending Branch Executive Member is entitled to cast a vote in relation to each office the subject of election.
- (m) Each attending Branch Executive Member will:
 - (i) cast a vote by completing the ballot paper by placing an "x", or other mark, against the name of the candidate the voter wishes to vote for; and
 - (ii) place the completed ballot paper in the ballot box.
- (n) Any member of the Electoral College who will not be present at the Meeting may, in writing, appoint an attending Branch Executive Member to vote as their proxy and such appointed member will be entitled to vote in their own right and as proxy, provided that:
 - (i) the appointment of proxy states the name of the appointer and is signed by the appointer; and
 - (ii) the appointment of proxy is provided to the Manager prior to the commencement of the election concerned.
- (o) The Manager must promptly count the ballot, once the ballot is closed, in the presence of scrutineers (if any) and must determine the ballot on a "first past the post" basis.
- (p) The candidate, in the election concerned, securing the highest number of votes will be declared elected.
- (q) Any scrutineer considering that an error has occurred in relation to the conduct of the ballot must immediately inform the Manager who will then make a determination in relation to the alleged error.
- (r) The determination of the Manager made in accordance with sub-rule (q) is final.

- (s) Any determination made by the Manager, in accordance with sub-rule (q), must be reported to the Branch Executive by the Manager at the time that the Manager declares the election concerned.
- (t) A scrutineer must not, in any manner, interfere with the proper conduct of a ballot being conducted in accordance with this rule and must not, at any time, physically handle a ballot paper.
- (u) If the Manager cannot decide which candidate is elected to an office because of votes cast for 2 or more candidates are equal, the Manager must decide which candidate is elected by drawing lots.
- (v) The Manager will promptly advise the Branch Executive of the result.
- (w) The Manager must do all such things as are necessary to ensure the secrecy of a ballot.

73 - CASUAL VACANCIES

- (a) A casual vacancy will occur in any office or position of the Branch or a Sub-branch, where the holder of an office or a position:
 - (i) dies;
 - (ii) resigns; or
 - (iii) in accordance with these rules:
 - (1) is removed from office; or
 - (2) ceases to hold office.
- (b) Casual vacancies will be filled in accordance with this rule.
- (c) Where a casual vacancy occurs, and the unexpired portion of the term of office or the position is more than twelve months, or three quarters of the term, whichever is the greater, the vacancy will be filled by direct or collegiate election, as the case may be and in accordance with the Election Procedure Rules, for such unexpired portion of the term.
- (d) Where a casual vacancy occurs and the unexpired portion of the term of office or position is less than twelve months or three quarters of the term, whichever is the greater, the vacancy will be filled as follows:
 - (i) Branch President - the Branch Executive may appoint or elect an eligible member to the office or position, as the case may be, for such unexpired portion of the term;
 - (ii) Regional Representatives – the Branch Executive may appoint or elect an eligible member to the office, in accordance with these rules, for such unexpired portion of the term;
 - (iii) Branch office holders other than those provided by parts (i) or (ii) – the Branch Executive may appoint or elect an eligible member to the office, in accordance with these rules, for such unexpired portion of the term;
 - (iv) Conference Delegates – the Branch Executive may appoint or elect an eligible member to the office, in accordance with these rules, for such unexpired portion of the term; and
 - (v) Sub-branch officers – the Sub-branch Executive of the Sub-branch may appoint or elect an eligible member to the office, in accordance with these rules, for the unexpired portion of the term.

76 - DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- (e) Pending the declaration of an election required pursuant to sub-rule (c), the Branch Executive may appoint a Member eligible to nominate for the office or position in accordance with these rules to carry out the functions of the office or the position.
- (f) Where, between election of the delegates to Federal Council, there has been an increase in the membership of the Branch such that the Branch would be entitled to an additional delegate, then such additional offices are to be filled in accordance with rule 41.
- (g) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the position of Branch Industrial Manager or Branch Legal Manager the Branch Executive may appoint a person eligible under respectively sub-rules 39(i) and 39(j) to the position for the unexpired portion of the term.

74 - RESIGNATION

- (a) A member of the Branch Executive who intends to resign during a term of office will give three months' notice of their resignation to the Branch President.
- (b) The Branch President may, despite sub-rule (a), accept, in appropriate circumstances, a lesser period of notice.
- (c) A member of the Branch Executive who has resigned during a term of office can not contest the consequent casual vacancy that arises.
- (d) The Branch Industrial Manager will give three months' notice of resignation to the Branch President.
- (e) The Branch President may, despite sub-rule (d), accept, in appropriate circumstances, a lesser period of notice.
- (f) A Branch Legal Manager will give three months' notice of resignation to the Branch President.
- (g) The Branch President may, despite sub-rule (f), accept, in appropriate circumstances, a lesser period of notice.

75 - BRANCH VOTING

- (a) Voting at all meetings of the Branch is by show of hands.
- (b) Despite sub-rule (a), the chair of a meeting held in accordance with these rules, may determine to conduct a ballot in another manner.

 - (A) the ballot opening period which must be not less than 14 days or more than 28 days as the Branch Returning Officer considers appropriate;
 - (B) the method of voting;
 - (C) the marking of the ballot paper;
 - (D) the return of the ballot paper; and
 - (E) any other information the Branch Returning Officer considers appropriate.
- (c) The Branch Returning Officer must:
 - (i) ensure that Members are instructed that ballot papers must not disclose the identity of the Member voting and that any ballot paper marked as to disclose the identity of the Member voting will be discarded and will not be counted in the ballot;
 - (ii) promptly count the ballot, once the ballot is closed, in the presence of scrutineers (if any) appointed by the Branch Executive; and
 - (iii) declare the result of the referendum and promptly report to the Branch Executive.

95 - LOANS, GRANTS & DONATIONS

- (a) Loans, grants and donations of any amount exceeding $1,000.00 cannot be made by the Branch to any one person or organisation unless the Branch Executive has:
 - (i) satisfied itself that:
 - (1) the making of the loan, grant or donation is in accordance with these rules; and
 - (2) in relation to a loan, that in the circumstances the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory; and
 - (ii) approved the making of the loan, grant or donation.
- (b)
 - (i) Despite sub-rule (a) a financial hardship payment of not more than $3,000.00 may be made to a member by the Branch Executive following a request, in writing, from a member setting out the nature of the financial hardship and the reason it has occurred.
 - (ii) Provided that any such financial hardship payment will be made on condition that, if the Branch Executive at its next meeting does not approve the payment, it must be repaid as decided by the Branch Executive.
 - (iii) In considering whether to approve a financial hardship payment, the Branch Executive must consider:
 - (1) whether the financial hardship payment was made under the rules of the organisation;
 - (2) if the financial hardship payment is a loan:
 - (A) whether the security (if any) given for the repayment of the loan is adequate; and
 - (B) whether the arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory.
- (c) The Branch Executive must not approve the making of any loan, grant or financial donation or payment in relation to financial hardship unless all members of the Branch Executive are present in person at the meeting that determines the making of the loan, grant or donation in relation to financial hardship.
- (d) The Branch Executive may determine by administrative regulation the manner in which loans, grants and donations can be processed by the Branch.

96 - LEGAL ASSISTANCE FUND

- (a) Purpose
 - (i) The purpose of the Branch Legal Assistance Fund is to finance legal proceedings of a criminal or disciplinary nature on behalf of Members in cases where:
 - (1) the matter giving rise to the proceedings arose out of the Member's employment with the Queensland Police Service; and
 - (2) where the action was in good faith.
 - (ii) The Branch Legal Assistance Fund, forms part of the Branch Fund, and comprises:

- (1) the legal assistance levy determined by the Branch Executive; or
 - (2) additional monies as determined by the Branch Executive.
- (iii) Legal assistance is assistance of a general nature paid, or payable, by the Branch to assist Members.
- (iv) There are three (3) categories of legal assistance available to Members:
 - (1) general legal assistance which is legal assistance of a legal nature paid or payable out of the Legal Assistance Fund as defined by this rule;
 - (2) special legal assistance which is legal assistance which may be granted to a Member in any other case involving exceptional circumstances where the matter involves a principle of general interest to the Branch or its Members; or
 - (3) retrospective legal assistance which is legal assistance which may be granted to Members who submit a claim for the payment of legal costs incurred after termination of the action.
- (v) Retrospective legal assistance is granted in exceptional circumstances, where:
 - (1) a Member requesting retrospective legal assistance submits a claim with a full written statement of their case to the Legal Assistance Committee;
 - (2) the Member's request for retrospective legal assistance must be accompanied by a recommendation of the Member's Sub-branch where the Member is attached to a Sub-branch; and
 - (3) where the recommendation of the Sub-branch has been determined, by specific ballot of the Members of the Sub-branch, at a properly constituted meeting of the Sub-branch, provided that a Sub-branch's recommendation is not binding on the Legal Assistance Committee.

- (vi) The level of financial assistance granted to a Member is determined by the Legal Assistance Committee having regard to:
 - (1) the merits of the case; and
 - (2) in particular, the conduct of the Member.
- (vii) It is not intended that the Branch Legal Assistance Fund provide assistance in:
 - (1) civil actions; or
 - (2) matters that involve Member against Member.
- (viii) Despite part (vii), where such an action involves a principle of general interest to the Branch or its Members the Legal Assistance Committee may, prior to the application being put to the Branch Executive, consider support for civil action.
- (ix) Funding of a civil action requires the approval of the Branch Executive based on the criteria of sufficient interest to the Branch or its Members.

- (b) Eligibility for Legal Assistance
 - (i) Only members may apply for legal assistance, provided that they must:
 - (1) have been a Member at the time of the event occurring;
and
 - (2) must also be either a Member at the time of application for legal assistance or a Member at the time the member was no longer eligible to be a member of the Branch, if such ineligibility occurred prior to the time of the application.
- (c) Other than where retrospective legal assistance is granted, the Branch shall not be responsible for the costs of any lawyer engaged by a member without the prior approval of the Legal Assistance Committee and any such cost is at that member's own expense.
- (d) Legal Assistance Committee
 - (i) In accordance with rule 31, the Branch Executive will elect from the members of the Branch Executive a standing committee (the "Legal Assistance Committee") to meet and determine all applications for Legal Assistance.
 - (ii) A meeting of the Branch Executive may remove the chair or a member of the Legal Assistance Committee without notice and may fill any casual vacancy.
 - (iii) All applications for legal assistance are:
 - (1) to be in the form determined by the Legal Assistance Committee; and
 - (2) made available on the Branch Website.
- (e) Proceedings of the Legal Assistance Committee
 - (i) Upon receipt of an application for legal assistance, the Legal Assistance Committee will determine:
 - (1) whether:
 - (A) a Member was financially eligible as required by this rule; or
 - (B) special circumstances exist in the absolute discretion of the Legal Assistance Committee as to why the member was unfinancial at the time of the event occurring;
 - (2) that the application is made in accordance with this rule; and
 - (3) the application is not one for special legal assistance.
 - (ii) The Legal Assistance Committee may, in its discretion, determine to grant legal assistance but in making the determination, the Legal Assistance Committee must consider:
 - (1) whether the Member was acting bona fide in the exercise of the Member's duty;
 - (2) whether by the granting of legal assistance the Branch is assisting one Member against another Member;
 - (3) if a Member indicated an intention to plead guilty, whether this is done on the advice of legal representatives; and

- (4) whether the proceedings arise as a direct result of the fact that the Member was a member of the Queensland Police Service.
 - (iii) The Legal Assistance Committee must advise a member in writing within 7 days of its acceptance, or rejection, of the Member's application for legal assistance.
 - (iv) If the Member's application is accepted, the Legal Assistance Committee will advise the member of the name and address of the lawyer appointed.
 - (v) If the Member's application is rejected the Legal Assistance Committee will advise the Member of the grounds on which the application was rejected and will advise the Member of the rights of appeal available to the Member pursuant to these rules.
- (f) Emergency Legal Assistance
- (i) In appropriate circumstances, any one of the Branch President, Branch Industrial Manager or the Branch Legal Manager may grant emergency legal assistance to a Member.
 - (ii) Any emergency assistance granted will only be effective until the next meeting of the Legal Assistance Committee at which time the member is required to submit a formal application for legal assistance in accordance with this rule.
- (g) Appointment of a Lawyer
- (i) Any lawyer engaged to perform legal assistance will be retained by the Branch for the benefit of the Member.
 - (ii) If legal assistance is granted, the Branch, and not the Member, is responsible for all approved fees and expenses incurred in respect of such legal assistance.
 - (iii) The Branch will not be responsible for any fees and expenses incurred by a Member in obtaining legal assistance for which the Member has not received approval from the Legal Assistance Committee.
 - (iv) Instructions given by the Member to the lawyer are confidential as between the lawyer and the Member and all communications passing between the lawyer and the Member retain legal professional privilege as between the lawyer and the Member, save as is authorised by the Member pursuant to this rule.
 - (v) Provided that where a member is found to be guilty of any charge or charges against the member, then nothing contained in this rule is to be construed to permit or require any payments of costs awarded against a member so found guilty.
 - (vi) The costs actually paid by the Branch are a first charge against any claim or costs recovered by a member in respect of the action the subject of legal assistance.
 - (vii) A member upon accepting a grant of Legal Assistance irrevocably authorises the payment of recovered costs, in satisfaction of the liability arising pursuant to part (vi), to the Branch.
- (h) Appeals
- (i) Any Member may appeal to the Branch Executive against a decision of the Legal Assistance Committee to reject legal assistance.
 - (ii) The appeal must be lodged in writing with the Branch Industrial Manager within a period of 14 days from the date of the notification of the Legal Assistance Committee's decision.

99 - STANDING ORDERS

- (iii) The Branch Executive will hear and determine any appeal from a decision of the Legal Assistance Committee at the next available monthly meeting of the Branch Executive or such earlier time as the Branch President may determine.
- (iv) The Branch Industrial Manager will give the Member 7 days' notice of the date and time of the hearing of the appeal.
- (v) A Member may make a submission to the Branch Executive as to reasons why the appeal against the decision of the Legal Assistance Committee should be allowed, provided:
 - (1) if the Member intends to personally, or by conference telephone, address the Branch Executive, the Member will give 48 hours' notice to the Branch Industrial Manager of the Member's intention to do so;
 - (2) if the Member intends to make written submissions to the Branch Executive, those written submissions must be provided to the Branch Industrial Manager not less than 48 hours prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the appeal;
 - (3) the Member is not entitled to legal or other representation on the hearing of the appeal;
 - (4) the Branch Executive will hear the appeal as if it was an application for legal assistance and the provisions of this rule will be applied accordingly.
- (vi) The Branch Executive will provide the Member with written advice on the result of an appeal, and if the Branch Executive rejects the appeal it will give the member written reasons of its decision.
- (vii) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in these rules, the decision of the Branch Executive is final.
- (viii) A Member is not entitled to apply for legal assistance from the Branch if the Member has made application for legal assistance from the QPUE.

97 - AUTONOMY

- (a) The Branch will have autonomy in respect of all matters which only affect members of the Branch, subject to Part B1 of the Federation's rules applying to the Branch Council and the Branch Executive.

98 - DISSOLUTION OF THE BRANCH

- (a) The Branch will not be dissolved unless the Branch Executive votes in favour of such dissolution.
- (b) Upon a vote in favour of the dissolution, the Branch will be dissolved and the assets and funds remaining after liabilities have been discharged will be paid, consistently with the objects of the Federation and as determined by the Branch Executive.

99 - STANDING ORDERS

- (a) The following procedures will be adhered to as far as practicable at all meetings of the Branch Council, the Branch Executive and general meetings of the Members and meetings of Sub-branches.
- (b) Despite sub-rule (a) the standing order for the Branch Conference are as provided in sub-rule (e).
- (c) The chair will take the chair for the meeting and upon ascertaining that a quorum is present, in accordance with the Branch rules, will then declare the meeting open for the transaction of business, provided, and subject to these rules, that if no quorum is present within 30 minutes the meeting will not proceed to business.

- (d) The standing order for meetings, other than special meetings, will be:
 - (i) attendance and apologies;
 - (ii) business as notified;
 - (iii) minutes will be presented for confirmation, but no discussion will be allowed except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings;
 - (iv) business arising out of minutes;
 - (v) correspondence;
 - (vi) Financial Statements and accounts;
 - (vii) reports; and
 - (viii) general business on notice.
- (e) The standing orders for the Branch Conference will be:
 - (i) attendance and apologies;
 - (ii) minutes will be presented for confirmation, but no discussion will be allowed except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings;
 - (iii) business arising out of minutes;
 - (iv) the appointment by the Branch President of 2 scrutineers to assist the Branch President in counting votes in any ballot held at the Branch Council;
 - (v) reports;
 - (vi) business as notified; and
 - (vii) Financial Statements and Branch Auditor's report.
- (f) The standing order for special meetings, which cannot be suspended in accordance with sub-rule (g), will be:
 - (i) attendance and apologies;
 - (ii) in relation to special meetings of the Branch Council, the appointment by the Branch President of 2 scrutineers to assist the Branch President in counting votes in any ballot held at the Branch Council; and
 - (iii) business as notified, subject to sub-rule 22(k).
- (g) Any motion to suspend the standing orders requires a 2/3 majority to be passed, provided that a member of the Branch Council who wishes to add a matter to the agenda, other than in accordance with rule 17, must seek to suspend standing orders and then have a 2/3 majority of the members of the Branch Conference approve the addition of the matter.
- (h) Any matter added to the agenda of the Branch Conference in accordance with sub-rule (g) will be placed on the agenda in the order determined by the Branch President.

100 - RULES OF DEBATE

- (i) A notice of motion will be dealt with in the order in which it stands in the agenda, in relation to other similar notices, provided that a motion to adjourn the standing order will be dealt with prior to the agenda item of concern being dealt with.
- (j) No notice of motion will proceed unless it is seconded.
- (k) Notices of motion not proceeded with will be struck out.
- (l) Any person engaging in misconduct during a meeting or obstructing the business of the meeting will be called to order by the chair and if, after being called to order, the person persists in the misconduct or obstruction or otherwise refuses or fails to comply with the chair's direction, that person may be excluded from taking any further part in the business of the meeting and may be physically expelled from the meeting.

100 - RULES OF DEBATE

- (a) No discussion will be allowed except on a motion or amendment, duly proposed and seconded.
- (b) A call for a seconder will only be put twice at which time if the motion or amendment has not been seconded it will lapse.
- (c) Any Member desiring to propose a motion or amendment or to discuss any matter under consideration must address the chair.
- (d) No Member will address the meeting unless, and until, called upon by the chair.
- (e) When the chair speaks during a meeting the Member then speaking, or offering to speak, will cease so that the chair may be heard without interruption.
- (f) The chair will call to order any speaker who departs from the question or who violates the courtesies or rules of debate.
- (g) If the chair determines to participate in a debate at any meeting then the chair will vacate the chair whilst participating, which will be taken by the person who acts, in accordance with these rules, in the absence of the chair.
- (h) All motions will be determined in the following manner:
 - (i) the mover of the motion will have 5 minutes at the time of moving the motion to present argument in support of the motion and 3 minutes to reply, where the reply is limited to the answering of arguments advanced against the motion;
 - (ii) the seconder of the motion and all other speakers will be limited to 3 minutes;
 - (iii) the meeting, on motion without debate, may extend the time of any speaker but an extension of time must not exceed 3 minutes and the meeting may agree to further extensions on the same basis;
 - (iv) the chair will call attention to the time of all speakers 1 minute before their time expires and motions for extensions may be made when the chair so calls, but not later; and
 - (v) after the motion has been moved and seconded, no more than 2 Members will speak in succession on one side, either for or against any question before the meeting and if at the conclusion of the second speaker's remarks no Member rises to speak on the other side, the motion or amendment will at once be put to the meeting, subject to part (i) of this sub-rule.
- (i) All votes at meetings will, subject to these rules, be as follows:

- (i) the chair will read the motion and determine the question on the voices, provided that the chair may call for a show of hands;
 - (ii) every question submitted to a meeting will be decided by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded by 5 Members; and
 - (iii) the chair will then declare the motion carried or lost.
- (j) In the event of a motion being carried or lost by a narrow majority, any 3 Members may demand a division and on a division being called for, those in favour will go to the side of the room on the chair's right and those against to the chair's left and the number on each side will be counted and the number of voters, for and against, will be recorded in the minutes.
- (k) At any time during debate on any motion it will be competent for any Member who has not spoken to the motion to move an amendment, which will be subject to the following:
 - (i) all amendments must be seconded;
 - (ii) motions may be amended by adding words, by deleting words, or by deleting words and inserting others in their place;
 - (iii) the effect of any proposed amendment cannot be to establish a direct negative to the question contained in the motion;
 - (iv) only one amendment will be received at a time and that amendment must be disposed of before any further amendment may be considered or moved;
 - (v) all amendments will be put before the original motion;
 - (vi) the mover of an amendment will not have a right of reply; and
 - (vii) should an amendment be carried it becomes the substantive motion and thereon a further amendment may be proposed, however, if no further amendment is proposed, the amendment which has become the substantive motion, will be put without further debate subject to part (v) of sub-rule (h).
- (l) Where a motion is considered by a meeting without any amendments being proposed no Member except for the mover of the motion will speak more than once on the motion, unless by way of personal explanation or with the consent of the meeting.
- (m) Where an amendment is proposed a Member may speak for or against the proposed amendment.
- (n) Any Member who considers they have been misrepresented by a speaker may, with the indulgence of the chair, interrupt the speaker to correct the misrepresentation, but the Member interrupting must not enter into argument.
- (o) It will be competent at any time during a debate for a Member who has not spoken to a motion under consideration to rise and move "That the question be now put" but no discussion will be allowed and if this motion is seconded and carried, the chair will immediately call upon the Member (if any) who may have the right of reply, and then, immediately following the reply, the chair will put the motion which will include the amendments (if any) that have been moved and accepted.
- (p) No motion upon any other subject will be submitted until the one before the chair is disposed of in accordance with this rule.

- (q) Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for 20 minutes, the discussion on such question will be closed and the chair will then call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution to continue the discussion of the matter in question.
- (r) A motion may be dealt with by:
 - (i) adoption as moved;
 - (ii) rejection as moved; or
 - (iii) adoption after amendment of the subject matter.
- (s) Any of the following motions, will be in order despite a motion (or motion with amendments) being before the meeting:
 - (i) "The Order of the Day", i.e., that the next business in order be now taken;
 - (ii) postponement of the question, either to a definite time or a time to be fixed;
 - (iii) reference to a committee; or
 - (iv) adjournment:
 - (1) of the debate; or
 - (2) of the meeting.
- (t) A motion for adjournment:
 - (i) may be moved and seconded at any time during the meeting;
 - (ii) may be debated, provided that not more than 4 speakers be allowed both for and against the motion, inclusive of the mover and seconder;
 - (iii) provides no right of reply for the mover of the motion; and
 - (iv) will be successful if carried by a majority of Members present.
- (u) A second motion for adjournment will not be moved until the subject under discussion at the time of the first motion for adjournment has been disposed of.
- (v) Questions of order will be decided by the chair, whose ruling will be final unless challenged by a formal motion submitted to the meeting.
- (w) Any Member may rise to a point of order when the Member considers the rules of debate to have been violated provided that the Member must submit the "point of order" to the chair, who will decide the question as prescribed in sub-rule (v).
- (x) Upon the point of order being raised, the Member addressing the meeting at the time will take their seat and will remain seated until the point of order has been decided.
- (y) A ruling given by the chair on any question may be subject to a motion of dissent calling the meeting to disagree with the ruling.
- (z) On the motion of dissent becoming seconded, the chair will vacate the chair which will be taken by the person who acts, in accordance with these rules, in the absence of the chair.
- (aa) No motion of dissent from the chair's ruling will be permitted unless it is made before any other business has been proceeded to.

- (bb) The procedure to determine a motion of dissent will be as follows:
 - (i) the Member moving the motion of dissent will be given 5 minutes to support the motion;
 - (ii) the chair will be given 5 minutes to defend their ruling; and
 - (iii) the acting chair will then put the question and on the question being determined the chair will resume the chair.
- (cc) A report of a Committee officially presented will be received without motion, but the adoption of such report either absolutely, or by clauses, will be moved and seconded.
- (dd) It will be competent for any Member to move the reconsideration of a resolution that has been passed by a meeting, provided that the Member will have given notice at a previous meeting.
- (ee) It will be competent for any Member to propose that any subject will be considered in a committee of the whole meeting, and such consideration will be confidential to the committee.
- (ff) The vote on such proposition when seconded will then be taken without discussion.

101 – TRANSITIONAL

- (a) Part CF1 rule 10 will not, to the extent of any inconsistency with these part CF2 rules, apply.
- (b) Part CF1 rule 14 will not, to the extent of any inconsistency with these part CF2 rules, apply.
- (c) The Branch Council, despite the terms of Part CF1 rule 15, will not comprise of Branch Conference Delegates until Branch Conference Delegates are first elected and take office in accordance with these Part CF2 rules.

102 – Transitional Rule (Election Cycle)

- (a) For the purposes of this rule the words in column A have the meaning set out opposite in column B:

| A | B |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 2021 Regional Representatives | the Regional Representatives declared elected by the Australian Electoral Commission in Matter E2021/48 |

- (b) The purpose of this rule is to correct the irregularity in relation to timing of the Quadrennial Election cycle for Branch Regional Representatives resulting from a delay in the conduct of an election conducted by the Australian Electoral Commission in 2021.
- (c) Despite sub-rule 40(g), the term of office for the 2021 Regional Representatives will conclude on 30 June 2025.
- (d) Despite sub-rule (c), the 2021 Regional Representatives will hold their respective office until their successor is declared elected in an election held in 2025 under rule 40.

SCHEDULE 1 – STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES

2 - INTERPRETATION

- (a) Words and phrases in these Standard Operating Procedures will have the same meaning as are given to these words and phrases by the Branch rules.
- (b) These Standard Operating Procedures are to be interpreted in the same way as the Branch rules.

3 - BRANCH RULES

- (a) Sub-Branch Executive
 - (i) Each Sub-branch must have a Sub-branch Executive.
- (b) Sub-Branch Executive Membership
 - (i) Membership of each Sub-branch Executive will consist of:
 - (1) a Sub-branch President; and
 - (2) not less than 2, or more than 10, other Sub-branch Executive Members,elected by, and from, the Members of the Sub-branch.
 - (ii) The Sub-branch Executive will, at its meeting held immediately prior to nominations being called for the election of members to the Sub-branch Executive, determine the number of other members to be elected, provided that where there has been no determination by the Sub-branch Executive of the number of other Sub-branch Executive Members then the number will be 2.
 - (iii) All members of the Sub-branch Executive will be elected in accordance with the Election Procedures Rules of the Branch rules.
 - (iv) A member of a Sub-branch Executive who is no longer a Member of the Sub-branch ceases to be a member of the Sub-branch Executive.
 - (v) The Sub-branch will, at its first meeting immediately following elections, and in accordance with rule 72 elect from the members of the Branch Executive a:
 - (1) Sub-branch President; and
 - (2) Sub-branch Minute Secretary.
- (c) Powers and Duties

3 - BRANCH RULES

- (i) The Sub-branch Executive will, subject to the Branch rules, these Standard Operating Procedures, Policy and the control of the Branch Executive, do all such things as are necessary to control and manage the affairs of the Sub-branch, and provide for its good government.
 - (ii) Without limiting part (i) the Sub-branch Executive has autonomy with respect to the conduct of the Sub-branch in so far as its decisions affect only the Members of the Branch.
 - (iii) The Sub-branch Executive will, through its chair, or as requested by the Branch Executive, submit to the Branch Executive a report of the business of the Sub-branch and/or such other matters as the Branch Executive may require.
- (d) Sub-Branch Executive Meetings
- (i) The Sub-branch Executive will meet at least 2 times per year and on such other occasions as its members may determine.
 - (ii) The Sub-branch Minute Secretary will upon the request of the Sub-branch President, or any 2 members of the Sub-branch Executive summon a meeting of the Sub-branch Executive.
 - (iii) The Sub-branch Minute Secretary, when summoning members to meetings of the Sub-branch Executive, will give at least 24 hours' notice by such means as are practicable in the circumstances, including by post, facsimile, text messaging, email, phone or in person.
 - (iv) Where the Sub-branch President considers that a matter requires urgent attention, the Sub-branch President will direct the Sub-branch Minute Secretary to call a meeting of the Sub-branch Executive, and the Sub-branch Minute Secretary will give such notice of the meeting, and by such means, as is practicable in the circumstances.
 - (v) Sub-branch Executive meetings may be conducted by telephone, video conferencing, internet conferencing, radio or any other method by which members of the Sub-branch Executive are able to communicate with each other without being physically present.
 - (vi) A member of the Sub-branch Executive not present at a meeting, or part of a meeting, may appoint in writing another member of the Sub-branch Executive as proxy to exercise their vote at the meeting.
 - (vii) No Sub-branch Executive member will hold more than 1 proxy at any meeting.
 - (viii) At any meeting of the Sub-branch Executive a majority of the total membership of the Sub-branch Executive will constitute a quorum.
 - (ix) If at any meeting of the Sub-branch Executive no quorum is present 30 minutes after the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting:
 - (1) such meeting will be adjourned for not less than 3 days nor more than 14 days; and
 - (2) members of the Sub-branch Executive will be given 2 days' notice of the date, time and place to which the meeting has been adjourned by such means as is practicable in the circumstances, including by post, facsimile, text messaging, email, phone or in person.
 - (x) If no quorum is present at an adjourned meeting then those Sub-branch Executive members present in accordance with part (v) are quorum for the purpose of the business to be determined.
 - (xi) At meetings of the Sub-branch Executive each member of the Sub-branch Executive has 1 vote and so there can be no doubt the Sub-branch President has a deliberative vote only.

3 - BRANCH RULES

- (xii) Voting will be by show of hands, except if the Sub-branch Executive determines otherwise.
 - (xiii) Decisions will be by simple majority of the votes cast by those present in accordance with part (v), unless otherwise provided by these Standard Operating Procedures.
 - (xiv) The minutes of each Sub-branch Executive meeting will be prepared by the Sub-branch Minute Secretary who will promptly provide a copy of the minutes to the Branch Industrial Manager who will retain a copy for the Branch's records.
 - (xv) A copy of the minutes of each Sub-branch Executive meeting will be available for inspection at the principal office of the Branch by Members of the Branch during office hours.
- (e) Sub-Branch General Meetings
- (i) A Sub-branch Executive may determine to hold an annual general meeting of the Members of the Sub-branch and other general meetings as they consider necessary and appropriate.
 - (ii) Members of the Sub-branch are to be given 21 days' notice of the annual general meeting by means as are practicable including by post, facsimile, text messaging, email, phone or in person.
 - (iii) Any Member of the Sub-branch will, where an annual general meeting is to be held, be entitled to submit an item of business for consideration by the annual general meeting, which will be included in the business of the meeting, provided that an item of business must be submitted to the Sub-branch President not later than 7 days prior to the holding of the annual general meeting.
 - (iv) At the written requisition of not less than 33% of the Members of the Sub-branch, which requisition is to be addressed to the Sub-branch President and must clearly state the business to be considered, the Sub-branch President will:
 - (1) cause a special general meeting of the Branch to occur within 1 month of the date of the Sub-branch President's receipt of the requisition; and
 - (2) promptly advise the Branch President of the holding of, and the date of, the special general meeting.
 - (v) Only the business stated in the requisition for the meeting may be considered at the special general meeting.
 - (vi) Members of the Sub-branch will be given at least 7 days' notice of a meeting by means as are practicable including by post, facsimile, text messaging, email, phone or in person and the notice must set out the business to be dealt with at the meeting.
 - (vii) Any Members of the Sub-branch unable to attend a general meeting may appoint another Member of the Sub-branch as their proxy to the meeting.
 - (viii) A proxy will be in writing and will be handed to the Sub-branch President prior to the commencement of the meeting.
 - (ix) No Member of the Sub-branch will hold more than 1 proxy at any special general meeting.
 - (x) The quorum for a meeting will be 33% of the number of Members of the Sub-branch entitled to attend and vote and, for the purposes of this part, a proxy counts for the purposes of quorum.
 - (xi) The Branch President is entitled to attend the special general meeting and if in attendance to chair the meeting and will act with the powers of the Branch President.

3 - BRANCH RULES

(f) Committees

- (i) The Sub-branch Executive may, from time to time, establish committees to further the work of the Sub-branch.
- (ii) A committee is to comprise such Members of the Sub-branch as the Sub-branch Executive determines.
- (iii) The Sub-branch Executive has the power to delegate to a committee its powers, or some of its powers, for so long and for such purpose as it considers appropriate and necessary.
- (iv) A committee is responsible to, and under the control of, the Sub-branch Executive.

It shall possess full and adequate powers to conduct its own affairs and to seek its objectives under the Rules. The control of the Association shall reside exclusively in the members of the Association. This Rule can never be altered except by a ballot of all financial members of the Association conducted under Rule 71 of these Rules.

CHAPTER 2 – MEMBERSHIP

59 – ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

See Rule 3 of the Federation Rules.

60 – ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

Without limiting the effect of the Federation Rules in relation to admission to membership of it, a person who is eligible to be a member of the Federation pursuant to Rule 3(i) of the Federation Rules, and who otherwise complies with the Federation Rules and these Rules, is entitled and shall, on application, be admitted to membership of the Association.

61 – SUBSCRIPTIONS

- 1) Until otherwise determined by the Executive, the subscription for membership of the Association shall be calculated in the case of all employees (whether sworn or unsworn), 1.25% of the base salary for the employee concerned with composite allowance (if applicable) prescribed by the Enterprise Agreement between the Association and the AFP from time to time.
- 2) Subscriptions shall be due on the 1st July and shall be payable not later than the 30th September in the same year, provided that in the case of a member joining the Association after the 1st July in any financial year the subscriptions of such member for that year:
 - a) Shall be a pro rata amount calculated in accordance with the remaining number of complete months in that financial year; and
 - b) Shall be payable by that member not later than three months after the date of acceptance of their membership.
- 3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules:
 - a) The Executive may make arrangements with any employer whereby with the authority of any member the subscriptions payable by that member to the Association are to be deducted by the employer from the salary or salaries of the member on a regular basis and paid to the Association;
 - b) A member who has authorised such deduction of their subscription to the association from their salary shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this Sub Rule, be deemed a financial member of the Association so long as such authority remains in force and provided that such member owes no arrears of subscriptions, fees or levies;
 - c) Where an arrangement referred to in this Sub Rule is terminated by the employer, the Secretary/Treasurer or the Zone Convenor shall notify in writing any member affected by such termination and a member so notified shall thereupon become liable to pay and shall, within twenty eight days from the date of such written notice, pay to the Association the balance of any contribution owing for the relevant year (which amount shall be specified in such notice and shall be the amount of the annual subscription payable by that member for that year less such amount or amounts as has or have been deducted by the employer from that member's salary in respect of such annual subscription) and thereafter shall be liable to pay subscriptions in accordance with this Rule;
 - d) The Secretary/Treasurer may make arrangements to provide for any Association members who choose to, to pay their subscriptions to the Association by means of automatic electronic funds transfer via a financial institution.

64 - ALLOCATION AND TRANSFER OF MEMBERS

- 4) All subscriptions and fees payable by members of the Association shall be paid to and collected by the Secretary/Treasurer or their duly appointed agent.
- 5) Where the Association becomes aware that payments required to be made by a member to the Association pursuant to any arrangement made under this Rule have ceased without notice to the Association, the Association shall within seven (7) days of becoming aware of such cessation notify the member and give them a reasonable opportunity, being not less than fourteen (14) days, to rectify any deficiency and make good any arrears.
- 6) The Executive may, upon receipt of a written application by a member:
 - a) Permit the member to pay their subscription by instalments, and/or;
 - b) Exempt such member from the payment either wholly or in part of any subscriptions, fees or levies payable by such member where the Executive believes that that member's peculiar circumstances warrant such action by it.
- 7) Where the Executive receives such an application from a member the Executive shall, before deciding on the application, advise the member in writing of the consequences of such an application on that member's rights as a member, as prescribed by Rule 63 (3), and give the member the opportunity to withdraw the application before it is decided upon by the Executive.

62 – ASSOCIATION LEVIES

63 – UNFINANCIAL MEMBERS

- 1) Subject to Rule 61(3) and Sub Rule (3) of this Rule, a member owing subscriptions, fees or levies for a period of three months after they first become due shall be deemed to be unfinancial.
- 2) In addition to the provisions of Rule 10 of the Federation Rules, an unfinancial member shall not be entitled to attend or speak or vote at any meeting of the Association.
- 3) Any member exempted pursuant to Rule 61(6) of these Rules from payment either in whole or in part of any subscription, fee or levy shall, for the purposes of these Rules, retain continuity of membership and be deemed financial but shall not, during the period of exemption, be eligible to nominate for or hold any office in or participate in any ballot or election in any Zone.
- 4) Without limiting the foregoing provisions of this Rule, and subject to those provisions, a member who is unfinancial shall not be entitled to any of the benefits of membership, or services of the Association during the period of unfinanciality, unless otherwise determined by the Executive.

64 - ALLOCATION AND TRANSFER OF MEMBERS

- 1) An Association member shall be attached to a Zone, the composition, constitution and boundaries of which are to be determined from time to time by the Executive, in accordance with these Rules, in a manner determined from time to time by the Executive.
- 2) All members must be attached to the Zone that they could most conveniently belong to ensure fair and equal representation. Where possible a member will first be attached to a Zone that best represents their operational/functional role within the workforce, or geographical location. The Secretary/Treasurer shall allocate all members in accordance with Executive resolutions as adopted from time to time in accordance with these Rules.

68 - MISCONDUCT OF MEMBERS

- 3) A member, once attached to a Zone, must remain a voting member of that Zone. A member may be transferred to another Zone only in accordance with Executive resolutions .
- 4) The Executive must regularly review the constitution, membership and boundaries of all Zones to ensure fair and equal geographical, skills and role based representation. Should it be necessary the Executive will from time to time establish Zones to ensure maximum and equal representation of all members.

NB: See also Rule 85 (4) in connection with elections of Workplace Delegates.

65 - TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 1) In addition to the provisions of Rule 11 of the Federation Rules:
 - a) A member may resign from membership by notice in writing addressed and delivered to the Secretary/Treasurer or the office of the Association;
 - b) A notice delivered in accordance with Rule 65(1) shall be taken to have been received by the Association when it was delivered;
 - c) A Zone Convenor in receipt of a notice of resignation from a member shall forward that notice to the Secretary/Treasurer forthwith.
- 2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Rules, if a member has failed to pay the subscriptions required by these Rules to be paid by them to the Association for a continuous period of 24 months from the date such amount becomes due for payment, then the Association shall as soon as possible after the expiry of that 24 month period, and in any event within a further 12 months of that latter date, remove the name of that person from the register of the Association's members. That person shall cease to be a member of the Association on the date that their name is removed pursuant to this Sub Rule.

66 - READMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

Subject to the provisions of the RO Act, the readmission of a person to membership who has resigned from or been expelled from the Association shall be conditional on the payment of any moneys owing by such persons to the Association in respect of their earlier membership and subject to the approval of the application by the Executive, provided that the Executive may in its discretion resolve to wholly or partially waive any such outstanding monies.

67 - RECOVERY OF SUBSCRIPTIONS ETC FROM ANY MEMBER

See Rule 10(e) of the Federation Rules.

68 - MISCONDUCT OF MEMBERS

- 1) Any financial member of the Association may report another member in writing, in respect of any of the following matters:
 - a) Knowingly refusing to obey any of the Rules of the Federation or the Association;
 - b) Refusing to abide by a resolution carried at any meeting of the Association;
 - c) Defrauding or attempting to defraud the funds of the Association;
 - d) Making a false and malicious report against another member;
 - e) Violating or attempting to violate the terms of any industrial award or agreement;

- f) Entering or attempting to enter into any agreement with any employer contrary to the provisions of any award or agreement secured by the Association and applicable to them;
 - g) Obstructing the National Council or other lawful committee or body of the Association in any way in the performance of any of its functions;
 - h) Obstructing any officer of the Association in the course of their duties;
 - i) wrongfully holding themselves out as occupying any Office or position in the Association in any capacity (to which charge it shall be a defence that the member believed bona fide and on reasonable grounds that the member was entitled to so act);
 - j) Behaving in a disorderly manner at any meeting held under these Rules or in the office of the Association;
 - k) Aiding or encouraging any other member or members in any offence under this Rule.
- 2) Any report shall be made in writing to the Secretary/Treasurer and shall be accompanied by a deposit equivalent to one month's subscription. The Secretary/Treasurer shall summon the member reported before a meeting of the Executive, or require the member reported to participate in a meeting of the Executive by means of a telephone conference. Such summons shall be in writing and shall set out the time and place of the meeting or the time of the telephone conference (as the case may be), the name of the person making the report and the substance of the report. The person reported shall be given such notice of the meeting or telephone conference as may be reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances and if required to attend at a place more than 80 kilometres from their address as shown in the books of the Association shall be given their return fare. The member shall, on request, be supplied with such further particulars as may be necessary to indicate the precise matters with which the member is reported.
- 3) The Executive shall have power to hear and determine reports under this Rule, subject to an appeal to National Council being open to the member reported.
- 4) At the appointed time and place (or any time and place to which the meeting is adjourned or postponed and of which the person reported is notified) the report may be investigated, whether or not the person reported is present, unless a satisfactory explanation of their absence has been received.
- 5) If the member reported attends they shall be informed of the substance and source of any information adverse to them on which the Executive relies. The member shall be given a reasonable opportunity to defend themselves and may, if they wish, tender written submissions.
- 6) If the Executive finds the member proved guilty it may do one or more of the following, keeping in mind the seriousness of the offence:
- a) Impose no penalty;
 - b) Suspend the member from membership or deprive them of any right or benefits of membership for any specified period or until the happening of any specified event or until the performance of any specified act. Suspension from membership shall deprive a member of the benefits of membership but shall not relieve them of the obligations of membership and shall not exceed six months for any offence. If the specified event had not occurred or the specified act had not been done at the expiration of six months from the date of suspension, the suspension shall then lapse;
 - c) Expel them from the Association.
- 7) Upon completion of any hearing, the deposit shall be refunded to the member making report, provided that if upon investigation the report is found to be frivolous by unanimous decision of the Executive, the deposit shall be forfeited by the member who made the report and shall be paid into the funds of the Association.

- 8) An appeal shall lie at the instance of the member reported from any decision under this Rule from the Executive to the National Council. Notice of appeal shall be given in writing within two weeks of any decision being communicated to the member and shall set forth in full all matters that the appellant desires to be considered. The appeal may be dealt with in meeting or by postal vote. The notice of appeal shall be given to the Secretary/Treasurer.
- 9) No member against whom a report has been made pursuant to this Rule shall be entitled to commence or prosecute any action or legal proceedings for defamation against the person making the report or any person who gave evidence (either orally or in writing) or any person who exercised any power or duty in respect to the hearing of the report, it being a condition of membership of the Association that all complaints, notices, letters, evidence or other matter arising under or incidental to any report and the hearing and determination thereof and all proceedings and utterances at the hearing and determination thereof should be privileged and protected accordingly and should any action or legal proceedings be taken as aforesaid, this Rule shall be pleaded as an absolute bar thereto, provided that this Rule shall not protect any person against any legal liability for making, with express malice, a statement false to the knowledge of such person.

CHAPTER 3 – GOVERNANCE

69 – OVERVIEW

The governance structure of the Association consists of:

- 1) General meetings of member and plebiscites;
- 2) National Council;
- 3) Executive; and
- 4) Zone Committees.

The following seven (7) Divisions of this Chapter deal with each of these various parts of the structure and related matters.

Division 1 – GENERAL MEETINGS AND PLEBISCITES

70 – ASSOCIATION GENERAL MEETINGS

- 1) A General Meeting of the Association may be convened in accordance with the requirements of this Rule to deal with either a Member's Matter or for the specific purpose of considering the Financial Reports.
- 2) A General Meeting of the Association may be called at any time on a resolution of the National Council being carried that such a meeting be held.
- 3) A General Meeting of the Association shall be called by the Secretary/Treasurer upon receipt by them of:
 - a) a direction to do so from the National Council; or
 - b) a petition signed:
 - i. by not less than five per cent of the financial members of the Association if the meeting is being convened to deal with a Members' Matter; or
 - ii. by not less than five per cent of the members of the Association if the meeting is being convened for the purpose of considering the Financial Reports.

Such petition shall state the business to be discussed at the meeting and shall contain the signature and name written in block letters of each petitioner and shall also contain a statement that the petitioner has read and understood the request prior to attaching their signature.
- 4) Not less than seven (7) days' notice of the time, place and agenda of a General Meeting shall be given, provided that when a matter requires immediate attention such lesser notice of a General Meeting as may be determined by the Executive may be given. Such notice to members shall be in writing and posted or delivered to each member's place of employment, or by email communication to a member's email address provided to the Association, or by notice published on the Association website.

71 – PLEBISCITE OF ASSOCIATION MEMBERS

- 5) A General Meeting shall not be competent to deal with any Members' Matter other than the reason set out by the petition of members or the notification of such meeting as has been given by the Secretary/Treasurer.
- 6) A General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Executive and shall be held not later than twenty-eight (28) days following the receipt of the petition by the Secretary/Treasurer.
- 7) A quorum for any General Meeting shall be at least five (5) percent of the financial members of the Association.
- 8) If no quorum be present at the expiration of thirty (30) minutes after the time stated for the commencement of a General Meeting, the meeting shall lapse but without prejudice to the calling of another General Meeting in accordance with the requirements of this Rule to deal with the same business, provided that no such further meeting may be convened without the approval of the Executive given by way of a Special Resolution.
- 9) Voting at all General Meetings shall be by show of hands or by such other method as the meeting may decide. The Chair shall have a deliberative vote only and in the event of a tie the question shall lapse. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.
- 10) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Rules a General Meeting may be conducted either:
 - a) by way of one meeting of the members at one location, or by way of a series of meetings at different locations, with the General Meeting being taken to have occurred, and the requirements for a quorum being determined, at the time of the last of the meetings in the series; or
 - b) by way of one meeting of the members where electronic facilities allow a reasonable opportunity for members present at the meeting to see and hear each other, including in relation to their voting intentions, although those members are at different locations during the meeting.

71 – PLEBISCITE OF ASSOCIATION MEMBERS

- 1) A plebiscite of all financial members of the Association in relation to any Members' Matter:
 - a) May be held at the discretion of the National Council or the Executive; and
 - b) Shall be held if required by a requisition in writing and signed by not less than five (5) per cent of the financial members of the Association.
- 2) The Executive shall approve for issue with the ballot paper a fair summary of the arguments for and against the question to be voted upon in the plebiscite and, for this purpose, the Secretary/Treasurer, after consultation with the parties in contention, shall submit to the Executive a draft of such summary.
- 3) Any such plebiscite shall be conducted by secret postal ballot and shall be under the absolute control and direction of the Returning Officer appointed pursuant to Rule 94(6) who shall:
 - a) Prepare ballot papers which shall contain the question to be voted on;
 - b) Cause to be posted to each member entitled to vote in the plebiscite a ballot paper, initialled by the Returning Officer, together with a reply paid envelope addressed to the Returning Officer, the summary approved by the Association Executive and such directions and instructions as the Returning Officer may deem necessary for the conduct of the plebiscite;

72 - ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES/DELEGATES TO NATIONAL COUNCIL

- c) Determine the time and date for the closure of the ballot, having consideration for the convenience of the voters;
 - d) Take such steps as are necessary to ensure that a result is correctly ascertained;
 - e) Report the result of the plebiscite to the first meeting of the Executive held after the conclusion of the counting of the votes cast.
- 4) A simple majority decision of the members voting shall be final and shall prevail over any contrary decision of the National Council or the Executive.

Division 2 – ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES

72 - ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES/DELEGATES TO NATIONAL COUNCIL

- 1) The Association Executive Officers shall be:
 - a) the President;
 - b) the Vice President;
 - c) the Secretary/Treasurer;
 - d) Six Executive members.
- 2) In addition to the Association Executive Officers there shall be Workplace Delegates for each Zone whose duties and responsibilities shall be:
 - a) to represent the members of the Association in their workplace to the best of their ability and to keep their Zone informed on all matters of importance occurring within their workplace;
 - b) to keep the members in the workplace informed about the business of the Association;
 - c) to endeavour to resolve all issues referred to them by members in their workplace by discussion with representatives of the AFP relevant to their workplace and in the event that an issue cannot be resolved by discussion, the Workplace Delegate shall refer the matter to the Zone Convenor, together with such other information as is necessary;
 - d) to diligently attend and participate in meetings of the National Council; and
 - e) to perform such other duties and responsibilities as are imposed on them by these Rules.
- 3) Workplace Delegates shall be elected to each Zone in accordance with the following formula in all such elections conducted after the certification of this Rule:
 - (i) 1 to 100 members: one delegate;
 - (ii) 101 to 200 members: two delegates;
 - (iii) 201 to 300 members: three delegates;
 - (iv) 301 to 400 members: four delegates;

73 – DUTIES OF OFFICERS (INCLUDING WORKPLACE DELEGATES)

- | | | |
|--------|-----------------------|------------------|
| (v) | 401 to 500 members: | five delegates; |
| (vi) | 501 to 600 members: | six delegates; |
| (vii) | 601 to 700 members: | seven delegates; |
| (viii) | 701 members and above | eight delegates |

PROVIDED THAT the above formula shall be reviewed by the Executive and the National Council every two (2) years following the certification of this Rule to determine whether any alteration is then required to continue to ensure fair representation of each Zone.

- 4) The term of office of a Workplace Delegate elected pursuant to these Rules shall be two (2) years from the date of such election, provided that they shall continue in that office until their successor takes up office. Any such person elected to such office is entitled to seek re-election for that office, if otherwise eligible in accordance with these Rules.
- 5) Any financial member of the Association is entitled to nominate and vote for the office of Workplace Delegate in the Zone to which they are allocated as at the date of calling of nominations for such office pursuant to Rule 95(5)(a)..
- 6) Elections for Workplace Delegates will be conducted in each Zone in accordance with Rule 95(5).
- 7) Any Casual Vacancy for the office of Workplace Delegate shall be filled in accordance with Rule 95 (7).
- 8) Assistant Workplace Delegates may be co-opted by the Zone Convenor as they see fit in order to enable the Zone Committee and its members to carry out their duties under these Rules. The names of such assistant Workplace Delegates shall be forwarded to the Secretary/Treasurer and one such assistant Workplace Delegate shall act on behalf of any Workplace Delegate when they are on leave or not available.
- 9) Zone Convenors, Workplace Delegates, or Zones, except as provided in these Rules, shall not commit the Association to a course of action, either formally or informally, and shall not incur any expense or liability on behalf of the Association unless expressly authorised by the Executive.
- 10) For the purposes of this Rule a Zone Convenor shall be deemed to be a Workplace Delegate where there is no such position elected within the Zone in accordance with Sub Rule (3) of this Rule.
- 11) All of the Offices referred to in this Rule (including that of Workplace Delegate) shall be honorary except:
 - a) for the Office of President as prescribed by Rule 82; and
 - b) any Office to which Rule 83 applies where the Executive resolves that such Office be a paid position, and subject to any conditions contained in such resolution.

73 – DUTIES OF OFFICERS (INCLUDING WORKPLACE DELEGATES)

- 1) All Association Executive Officers and Workplace Delegates are required to give due and diligent attention to their duties to the Association, whether prescribed by these Rules, the RO Act or any other law.
- 2) Without limiting the foregoing, an Association Executive Officer or Workplace Delegate is under a duty to the Association to comply with the provisions of the Association's "Code of Conduct" as such Code provides from time to time.

- 3) Without limiting the effect of the preceding provisions of this Rule, Association Executive Officers shall also comply with financial accountability obligations prescribed by Part B1 of the Federation Rules.

Division 3 – NATIONAL COUNCIL

74 – CONSTITUTION OF NATIONAL COUNCIL

- 1) The National Council shall consist of:
 - a) The Association Executive Officers; and
 - b) Subject to Rules 72(3) and 74(2) Workplace Delegates from each Zone, elected by and from the financial members of each Zone;
 - c) Each Zone Convenor as elected in accordance with these Rules, by and from financial members in each Zone.
- 2) The Zone Convenor shall, ex officio, be the first of the Zone's delegates to the National Council and shall be counted in the number of delegates eligible to be elected.
- 3) Where a Zone Convenor or Workplace Delegate of a Zone becomes an Association Executive Officer, they shall cease to be and act as a delegate of that Zone and that Zone shall be entitled to elect or appoint a delegate in their place in accordance with Rule 95(7) of these Rules.

75 – POWERS AND DUTIES OF NATIONAL COUNCIL

The National Council shall, subject to these Rules and the control by the members as hereinbefore mentioned, be the supreme governing body of the Association in relation to the following matters, and those matters only:

- 1) To determine and direct the general policy of the Association in all matters affecting the National Council;
- 2) To make, add to, amend, rescind and/or otherwise alter these Rules;
- 3) To approve guidelines for the granting of legal assistance to members pursuant to Rule 105;
- 4) To resolve that the Association affiliate with any other organisation or body that has industrial or political objects consistent with those of the Association;
- 5) To elect, in an election year, by and from its number, the Association Executive Officers as identified in Rule 72(1);
- 6) To remove any Officer of the Association from Office as specified in Rule 92;
- 7) To confer Life Membership on any person in recognition of long or exemplary service rendered to the Association;
- 8) To nominate for award or national recognition any person in recognition of exemplary service rendered to the Association and/or law enforcement profession and/or welfare of law enforcement officers and victims of crime and/or the community; and
- 9) To exercise any other power specifically conferred on it by these Rules.

76 – MEETINGS OF NATIONAL COUNCIL

- 1) The National Council shall meet biennially in the months of March or April or at such other time as is determined by the Executive.
- 2) Special meetings of the National Council shall be held by resolution of the National Council or Executive.
- 3) The Secretary/Treasurer shall give each member of the National Council at least thirty (30) days' notice of the biennial meeting of National Council and seven (7) days' notice of any special meeting thereof.
- 4) The quorum for meetings of the National Council shall be one half of the persons entitled to attend and vote. If no quorum be present at the expiration of thirty (30) minutes after the time stated for the commencement of the meeting such meeting shall lapse but without prejudice to another such meeting being called for the same purpose as such meeting was called, at such other time and place as may be thought fit, upon seven (7) days' notice to all members by the Secretary/Treasurer provided that no such meeting may be convened without the approval of the Executive given by way of a special resolution.
- 5) Voting at all meetings of the National Council shall be by show of hands unless the National Council decides on another method. At all such meetings the Chair shall have a deliberative vote only and in the event of a tie the question shall lapse. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

77 – AGENDA FOR NATIONAL COUNCIL

- 1) Not less than sixty (60) days prior to a biennial meeting of the National Council, the Secretary/Treasurer shall invite each member of the National Council to submit items for the agenda, such items to be forwarded to the Secretary/Treasurer not more than thirty (30) days after such invitation.
- 2) The Secretary/Treasurer shall, upon receipt of such items, prepare and forward to each member of the National Council a copy of the agenda paper at least fourteen (14) days prior to the biennial meeting of National Council.
- 3) The Executive shall have power to submit items for consideration by National Council and such items shall be included on the agenda paper referred to in Sub Rule (2) of this Rule.
- 4) The agenda paper for a special meeting of National Council shall be forwarded with the notice of such meeting.
- 5) National Council may, at any of its meetings, deal with any matter, pursuant to Rule 75, whether or not that matter has appeared or appears on the agenda paper, provided that a majority of the members of National Council present and voting, vote in favour of the particular item being considered.

78 – FARES AND EXPENSES

The Executive shall determine from time to time the fares and expenses to be paid to or on behalf of members of the National Council and when attending meetings of the same or when attending to the business of the Association. Such fares and expenses shall be paid out of the funds of the Association.

79 – MATTERS REQUIRING DECISION BETWEEN NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

- 1) The Executive may determine that any matter requires a decision of the National Council between biennial meetings of the National Council and that such matter be submitted to the National Council for decision in accordance with either of the procedures prescribed in Sub Rules (2) and (3) of this Rule.
- 2)
 - a) Where it is determined that the matter be submitted to the National Council for decision by ballot of the members of the National Council, such matter may be forwarded by post, email to each of the members of the National Council in such form as is determined by the Executive.
 - b) The members of the National Council shall record their vote on the matter so submitted by post, email addressed to the Secretary/Treasurer and the decision of the majority shall be binding as if such decision were obtained by vote at a regularly constituted meeting of the National Council.
 - c) All votes or their confirmation shall be signed by members of National Council recording the same.
- 3)
 - a) Where it is determined that the matter be submitted to the National Council for decision by a meeting of members of the National Council conducted by such telephonic or electronic means as may from time to time be available, the Secretary/Treasurer shall as soon as is practicable arrange such a meeting.
 - b) The members of the National Council shall participate in such a meeting and the decision of the majority shall be binding as if such decision were obtained at a regularly constituted meeting of the National Council.
- 4) If:
 - a) In the course of a ballot conducted pursuant to Sub Rule (2) of this Rule, a majority of members of the National Council notify the Secretary/Treasurer; or
 - b) In the course of a meeting conducted pursuant to Sub Rule (3) of this Rule, a majority of members of the National Council resolve, that the matter as submitted to them is of such importance as to require a special meeting of the National Council then such special meeting of the National Council shall be convened forthwith by the Secretary/Treasurer to meet at such time and place as the Executive shall determine.
- 5) At any special National Council meeting held pursuant to Sub Rule (4)(b) of this Rule the Executive may submit for consideration such other matters as it should determine, provided that written notice of not less than seven (7) days is given to all members of the National Council.

Division 4 – NATIONAL EXECUTIVE

80 - EXECUTIVE – COMPOSITION, POWERS AND DUTIES

- 1) The Executive shall consist of the Association Executive Officers and shall be the committee of management of the Association for the purposes of the RO Act. Subject to these Rules and the decisions of the National Council and the members in general meeting or by plebiscite, the Executive shall have full power to conduct and manage the affairs of the Association.

- 2) Without limiting the effect of Sub Rule (1), the Executive shall have the following powers:
- a) Such powers as are specifically conferred on the Executive by any other provisions of these Rules;
 - b) The power to appoint an Association auditor, and to fix their fees or remuneration;
 - c) To remove an Association auditor in accordance with Rule 100;
 - d) To fix the remuneration and benefits of Association Executive Officers;
 - e) To fix the remuneration of the Association Returning Officer;
 - f) Subject to the requirements of Rule 107 in the case of the General Manager, fix the terms and conditions of employment of employees of the Association;
 - g) Delegate the powers and responsibilities of the Secretary/Treasurer to the General Manager;
 - h) To appoint any person to represent the Association before any court, commission, board, tribunal or other authority;
 - i) To establish any committee or subcommittees as it may determine provided that any such committee or subcommittee shall be advisory only;
 - j) To enter the association into an affiliation with any other organisation or body other than those with industrial or political objectives;
 - k) Subject to the RO Act, to interpret these Rules;
 - l) To direct the investment of the funds of the Association;
 - m) To dispose of or transfer any of the funds of the Association or any securities in which the funds of the Association have been invested;
 - n) To establish such companies, agencies and bodies as are necessary to further the interests of the members;
 - o) To take such action or exercise such powers as are incidental to those specifically identified in these Rules.

81 – MEETINGS OF EXECUTIVE

- 1) The Executive shall meet at such times and in such places as it shall determine by resolution, and may meet as many times in a calendar year as it should so determine, provided that it shall meet no less than five (5) times in any one calendar year.
- 2) A meeting of the Executive may also be convened at the written request of the President or at least three (3) members of the Executive, submitted to the Secretary/Treasurer. To avoid doubt, there is no limit on the number of such meetings that may be conducted in any one calendar year.
- 3) The Secretary/Treasurer shall give written notice of each meeting of the Executive as follows:
 - a) In the case of a meeting convened pursuant to Sub Rule (1) of this Rule, at least seven (7) days' notice of the time of the meeting; and

- b) In the case of a meeting convened pursuant to Sub Rule (2) of this Rule, not less than forty-eight (48) hours' notice of the meeting, where practicable; provided that where the Executive resolves to schedule more than one meeting pursuant to Sub Rule (1), the Secretary/Treasurer may notify the members of those dates by one communication listing all dates so fixed.

- 4) The quorum for meetings of the Executive shall be one half of the persons entitled to attend and vote. If no quorum be present at the expiration of thirty (30) minutes after the time stated for the commencement of the meeting such meeting shall lapse but without prejudice to another such meeting being called for the same purpose as such meeting was called, at such other time and place as may be thought fit, upon seven (7) days' notice to all members by the Secretary/Treasurer.
- 5) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Rules, any meeting of the Executive may be conducted in person, by telephone or videoconference, or by a combination of these forms of meeting or communication. Where any such Meeting is conducted other than by way of all of the participants being present in person, such meeting shall be as valid as if all participants had met in person provided that:
 - (a) Any such meeting is otherwise convened and conducted in accordance with the requirements of the Rules, including (without limitation) the preceding provisions of this Sub Rule; and
 - (b) Each of the members participating in the meeting must be able to hear each of the other members present at the meeting.
- 6) Where in the opinion of the President a matter requires the consideration of the Executive before its next scheduled meeting, the Executive may be consulted in writing (including electronic means) by circular proposed resolution. Such a proposed resolution shall become a resolution of the Executive as at the date set for return of responses, provided that the proposed resolution is supported by at least fifty (50) percent of the total number of Association Executive Officers then holding Office, plus one. A resolution passed by way of such circular resolution shall be reported to the next Executive meeting.
- 7) To avoid doubt, in this Rule, communication by way of email to a person at that person's email address notified to the Association shall be deemed sufficient to constitute written communication to that person.
- 8) It shall be the duty of each Association Executive Officer to attend every meeting of the Executive unless granted leave by the Executive.
- 9) At all meetings of the Executive voting shall be by show of hands unless the meeting decides on another method. The Chair shall have a deliberative vote only and in the case of a tie the question shall lapse. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

82 – PRESIDENT

- 1) The President shall preside at all meetings of the National Council and the Executive and any meeting of the Association held by decision of the National Council. They shall preserve order so that the business may be conducted in due form and with propriety and upon the minutes being confirmed shall sign those minutes in the presence of the meeting.
- 2) The President shall have the authority to act for and on behalf of the Executive in any matter of such urgency that the Executive cannot reasonably be convened or consulted under these Rules, but shall report the full circumstances of such action to the Executive at the first available opportunity.

83 – VICE-PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE MEMBERS

- 3) In addition to the foregoing obligations, the President shall undertake full time the role of being principal spokesperson and public representative of the Association, with the principal place for the performance of those duties being at and from the location of the National Office as determined pursuant to Rule 54.
- 4) The Office of President shall be a full time paid position on terms and conditions prescribed by resolution of the National Executive from time to time.

83 – VICE-PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE MEMBERS

- 1) The Vice President shall assume the duties of the President in the absence of that Officer for any reason, and shall otherwise perform such duties and functions as may from time to time be allocated to them by resolution of the Executive. Provided that:
 - a) if both the President and the Vice President are not available for any reason, the Executive shall appoint one of the Executive members to act as Vice President until either that Officer or the President becomes available; or
 - b) if the President is unavailable for any reason and the Vice President either advises the General Manager in writing that they are unwilling to assume the duties of President or fails to take up those duties within seven (7) days of the requirement to do so arising, the Executive may appoint another member of the Executive to act as President until the President becomes available.
- 2) Each Executive member shall at all times assist the President in the execution of their duties and provide oversight, direction and assistance to Convenors and Workplace Delegates. The Executive will determine which Convenors and Workplace Delegates are to be allocated to each of the Executive members for oversight, direction and assistance.
- 3) The Executive may resolve that any office to which this Rule relates shall be a paid position, provided that any such resolution must specify:
 - a) whether the position is full time or part time, and if the latter the hours and/or days of work;
 - b) the duties of the paid position;
 - c) the principal place at or from which the duties are to be performed;
 - d) the duration of the paid position; and
 - e) the terms and conditions for the position, including remuneration,

PROVIDED THAT:

 - f) The principal place at or from which the duties are performed shall be the National office as determined pursuant to Rule 54, unless the Executive resolves otherwise; and
 - g) Any such resolution may be altered or rescinded at any time by the Executive, on not less than thirty (30) days' notice to any incumbent.

- 1) The Secretary/Treasurer shall:
 - a) Summon by notice in writing to each member thereof and attend, unless excused, all meetings of the National Council and the Executive and keep or cause to be kept correct minutes of the same, which minutes when confirmed are to be electronically stored in the Association's records;
 - b) Have the right to speak at any general or special meeting of any Association or Zone Committee, but not to vote unless they are a member of such Zone Committee;
 - c) Initiate or respond to all correspondence as appropriate to these Rules;
 - d) Keep or cause to be kept the records required to be kept by an organisation pursuant to the provisions of the RO Act;
 - e) Lodge and file with and furnish to the General Manager of the FWC all such documents as are required to be lodged, filed or furnished under the RO Act at the prescribed times and in the prescribed manner;
 - f) Keep an up to date register of members showing their names, their postal address and email address where notified, and their allocated Zone under the Rules and provide the Returning Officer with such assistance as is necessary to enable them to conduct any election;
 - g) Receive all monies on behalf of the Association and pay the same within seven days of receipt into such financial institution or institutions as the Executive may direct to the credit of the Association;
 - h) Issue or cause to be issued proper receipts for all moneys received by or on behalf of the Association;
 - i) Be responsible for but not hold in their name, the books, records, property and moneys of the Association and, within 48 hours of receiving a request from the Executive to do so, deliver to the Executive such books, records, property and moneys;
 - j) Submit their books, accounts and receipts annually or as often as may be required by the Executive or to the auditors and to give them such assistance as they may require in the audit;
 - k) Draw up a report and balance sheet each financial year and forward a copy of same to each member of the Executive within three months of the end of the financial year to which it relates;
 - l) Prepare and submit to each meeting of the Executive an up-to-date financial statement and, when called upon so to do by the President, or the Executive, produce all relevant books in support of the same;
 - m) Subject to Rule 98(2), submit to the Executive all accounts for payment with their recommendations and make all authorised payments from the funds of the Association, such payments to be approved by any two of the Association Executive Officers appointed by the Executive;
 - n) At the direction of the Executive, carry out other duties as required.
- 2) The Secretary/Treasurer may depute a member of a recognised Institute of Accountants approved by the Executive to keep the books of the Association, in which event they shall remain responsible for the supervision of their preparation and their accuracy.

- 3) The duties prescribed in this Rule are to be carried out under the direction and control of the Executive which may from time to time delegate some of those duties by resolution to other Association Executive Officers or to the General Manager pursuant to Rule 107.
- 4) To avoid doubt, the Secretary /Treasurer may be assisted in the performance of any of their duties under the Rules by the General Manager or any other employees so authorised by resolution of the Executive.

DIVISION 5 – ZONE GOVERNANCE

85 – ZONES

- 1) Subject to the provisions of this Division the Executive of the Association may from time to time establish Zones of the Association. The Executive shall ensure that each Zone is operationally viable and represents a geographical, operational or other community of interest. The Executive must ensure that no inherent or contrived bias shall prejudice the reasonable application of the principle ‘one vote - one value’ for members through the establishment of a Zone. To ensure ongoing viability of a Zone, the Executive may appoint as many Assistant Workplace Delegates to a Zone as are required to allow proper representation of the Zone members.
- 2) Where a new Zone is established the new positions of Zone Convenor and Workplace Delegates will be filled in accordance with Rule 95.
- 3) The Association may disband such Zones as the Executive may from time to time decide. Where an existing Zone is disbanded the existing positions of Zone Convenor and Workplace Delegates held within the Zone will cease to exist at the completion of their current term or upon vacation of the office before that time.
- 4) Notwithstanding any of the previous provisions of this Rule, the Executive may not establish a new Zone, or disband or alter the coverage of any existing Zone, any later than 31 March in any year in which a biennial election for Workplace delegates is due to be conducted pursuant to Rule 95.

86 – ZONE MANAGEMENT

The government, management and control of the affairs of each Zone shall, subject to these Rules and any direction of the Executive be vested in a Zone Committee constituted by the elected Workplace Delegates, any assistant Workplace Delegates appointed, and the Zone Convenor of that Zone.

87 - ZONE CONVENORS

The Zone Convenor shall, ex officio, be a member of all Committees and Sub-Committees of the Zone.

- 1) The Zone Convenor shall:
 - a) Preside at all meetings of the Zone's Committee and preserve order thereat so that business may be conducted in due form with propriety and in conformity with standing orders;
 - b) Sign all documents requiring their signature as official head of the Zone and shall sign all minutes of the Zone duly confirmed in the presence of the meeting confirming the same;
 - c) Call meetings of the Zone committee when necessary;
 - d) Generally, ensure the well-being of the Zone and its members and the carrying out of the objects of the Association within the area administered by their Zone;

88 - ZONE COMMITTEE

A Zone Committee shall consist of the Zone Convenor, such Workplace Delegates in number as elected in accordance with Rule 72(3) and Rule 95 and any Assistant Workplace Delegates if appointed.

89 - POWERS AND DUTIES OF ZONE COMMITTEE

A Zone Committee shall, subject to these Rules and to the control of the Zone members as hereinafter mentioned, have power:

- 1) To take any action which in its opinion is in the interests of the Zone, provided that such action does not conflict with the policies of the Association or any decision or direction of the National Council or the Executive; and
- 2) To exercise any other powers conferred upon it by these Rules.

90 - MEETINGS OF ZONE COMMITTEE

A Zone Committee shall meet at such times as it may determine provided that the President or the Secretary/Treasurer may, by notice in writing either by post or electronic means, call a meeting of the Zone Committee and shall call such a meeting if requested to do so by not less than one-third of the members of such Committee. The Zone Convenor shall cause accurate minutes of all Zone meetings to be kept and maintained.

91 – GUARANTEE OF FAIR REPRESENTATION

The Executive, when establishing the composition of any Zone will ensure as far as practicable that all Association members shall receive fair representation of their professional and industrial interests on the National Council. The Executive shall ensure that Zone compositions will preclude any institutional gerrymander which defeats the representation of members' interest.

Division 6 – ELECTION OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES

See Chapter 4

Division 7 – REMOVAL OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES

92 – MISCONDUCT OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

- 1) An Association Executive Officer may be removed from their Office if the National Council by majority resolution of members voting finds them guilty, in accordance with these Rules, of misappropriation of the funds of the Association, a substantial breach of the Rules of the Federation or the Association, gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or finds that they have ceased, according to these Rules, to be eligible to hold their Office.

[Note: See Rule 73(1) and Rule 81(8) – failure by an Association Executive Officer to attend three consecutive meetings of the Executive without leave may constitute a serious breach of the Rules or gross neglect of duty.]

- 2) Any member suspecting an Officer to be liable to removal pursuant to Sub Rule (1) may report such Officer under this Rule. Any report shall be in writing and shall be forwarded to the President or the Secretary/Treasurer, who shall notify the person reported of the details of the report.

93 - REMOVAL OF ZONE CONVENORS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES

- 3) The person reported shall be given not less than fourteen days' notice in writing of the time and place of the meeting at which the report is to be heard and determined and shall be entitled to attend such meetings and to be heard but not to vote thereat.
- 4) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive by majority resolution may, in their discretion, suspend from Office or Association membership a person reported under this Rule pending determination of the report but in no event shall a person remain suspended for a period exceeding twenty-eight (28) days.
- 5) A person shall be ineligible to hold office under this Rule if they cease to be a financial member of the Association.

93 - REMOVAL OF ZONE CONVENORS AND WORKPLACE DELEGATES

- 1) A Zone Convenor or Workplace Delegate may be removed from their office if the Executive by a majority resolution of members voting finds them guilty, in accordance with these Rules, of misappropriation of the funds of the Association, a substantial breach of the Rules of the Federation or the Association, gross misbehaviour or gross neglect of duty or finds that they have ceased, according to these Rules, to be eligible to hold their office.
- 2) Any member suspecting such an officer to be liable to removal pursuant to Sub Rule (1) may report that officer under this Rule. Any report shall be in writing and shall be forwarded to the Secretary/Treasurer, who shall notify the person reported of the details of the report.
- 3) The person reported shall be given not less than fourteen (14) days' notice in writing of the time and place of the meeting at which the report is to be heard and determined and shall be entitled to attend such meeting and to be heard but not to vote thereat.
- 4) A member so removed by the Executive shall have the right of appeal to the National Council provided that the member gives to the Secretary/Treasurer notice of their intention to appeal within seven days of the member being notified in writing of their removal, but the giving of such notice shall not operate to stay the decision of the Executive.
- 5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may, in its discretion, suspend from office a person reported under this Rule pending determination of the report but in no event shall a person remain suspended for a period exceeding twenty-eight (28) days.
- 6) A person shall be ineligible to hold office under this rule if they cease to be a financial member of the Association.

CHAPTER 4 – ELECTIONS

94 - ELECTION OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

- 1) Election and Tenure of Office
 - a) The President shall be elected by secret ballot by and from the National Council and shall take Office from the declaration of their election or the conclusion of the National Council meeting at which they were elected whichever is the later. They shall hold Office for a period of four years or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken Office. Such an election shall be conducted at every second biennial meeting of National Council, occurring thereafter.
 - b) The Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer and the Six Executive members shall be elected by secret ballot by and from the National Council. The persons so elected shall take Office from the declaration of their election or the conclusion of the National Council meeting at which they were elected, whichever is the later. Commencing from the elections to be conducted in 2021, they shall hold Office for a period of four years or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken Office. Such an election shall be conducted at every second biennial meeting of the National Council, occurring thereafter.
- 2) Qualifications for Office
 - a) A nominee for the Office of President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer or Executive Member shall be a financial member of the Association at the date of their nomination and:
 - (i) Shall be a member of the National Council; and
 - (ii) Nominated by two members of the National Council.
- 3) Manner of Election
 - a) The Returning Officer shall call for nominations for the Office of President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer and Executive members sixty (60) days prior to the meeting of National Council, in an election year, provided that nominations for the said Offices shall close seven (7) days prior to such meeting. The roll of voters for these elections shall close no later than seven (7) days prior to the date upon which nominations are to be called.
 - b) Nominations shall be in writing, signed by the nominee and two (2) nominators (who shall be members of the National Council) and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer in a form and by a means nominated by the Returning Officer.
 - c) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received for compliance with the requirements of these Rules and shall reject any that do not so comply, provided that in the event of the Returning Officer finding a defect in any nomination, the Returning Officer shall, before rejecting the nomination, notify the person concerned of the defect and, where it is practicable to do so, give the nominee the opportunity of remedying the defect where practicable within a reasonable period of the nominee having been so notified.
 - d) Pursuant to Sub Rule (1) of this Rule the election of the Association Executive Officers shall be held during the National Council meeting occurring in an election year during the period of such a year prescribed by Sub Rule (1) of Rule 76.
 - e) If only one nomination for a position is received by the Returning Officer, the nominee shall be declared elected. If two or more nominations are received the Returning Officer shall forthwith conduct a ballot of National Council members in accordance with this Rule and declare the result as soon as it becomes available.

- f) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position, the Returning Officer shall have ballot papers prepared containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot, indicating the number to be elected to each position, the manner in which votes shall be recorded, and the date and the time of closing of the ballot.
- g) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the ballot papers and shall initial every ballot paper prior to distribution.
- h) The Returning Officer shall provide a ballot paper to each member of the National Council in attendance at the meeting who is eligible to vote, and shall arrange for the use of a receptacle to which ballot papers shall be returned to. After the closing of the ballot, the Returning Officer shall collect the ballot papers from such receptacle.
- i) Upon collecting the same the Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the scrutineers (if so requested), count all the votes cast and, subject to paragraph (j) of this Sub Rule, declare the result of the ballot.
- j) If at the conclusion of the count of the ballot papers, two or more of the candidates have the same number of votes (a tie), the result shall be determined by the Returning Officer as follows:
 - (A) If one of the candidates held the affected Office immediately prior to the calling of nominations for the election that produces the tied vote, that candidate shall be declared to be elected.
 - (B) If (A) does not apply, the Returning Officer will determine the result by drawing lots amongst the candidates.
 - (C) If (B) applies, the Returning Officer will give written invitations to the tied candidates to attend the draw. The draw will take place at the location and time nominated in the invitations. The draw will proceed at the specified place and time, whether or not any of the invited candidates are present. The Returning Officer will declare the result of the election determined pursuant to this paragraph immediately following the completion of the draw.
- k) Upon declaration of the ballot, the Returning Officer shall seal and retain all ballot papers for a period of twelve (12) months after the conduct of the ballot.

4) Casual Vacancy

- a) Where a Casual Vacancy (howsoever occurring) arises in the Office of President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer or any of the Executive members then the Secretary/Treasurer or in the case of casual vacancy in the Office of Secretary/Treasurer, the President, shall take immediate action to have such vacancy filled provided that:
 - (i) Where the unexpired portion of the term of Office in which the vacancy occurs does not exceed three quarters of the term, the Executive may fill such vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the National Council; and
 - (ii) Where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs exceeds three quarters of the term, the Executive may fill such vacancy by appointment of an eligible member of the Association until an election is held, provided that no person so appointed shall hold office for a period exceeding three months.

94 - ELECTION OF ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

- b) Such election shall be conducted by secret postal ballot of the members of the National Council by the Returning Officer appointed pursuant to Rule 94(6), and the Returning Officer so appointed shall determine the dates for the opening and closing of nominations and the ballot. The Returning Officer shall report the result of the election to the next following meeting of the Executive.
- c) Any person so elected shall take Office from the date of the declaration of their election and shall hold Office until the expiration of the term of the person they replaced.
- d) In all other respects such election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Rule.

5) System of Voting

- a) The system of voting in any election conducted pursuant to this Rule shall be the first-past the post system.
- b) A voter shall record their votes by marking sequential numbers on the ballot paper, commencing with the number 1, in the squares opposite the names of the candidates so as to indicate the order of the voter's preference for each candidate, provided that failure by a voter to mark a preference beyond the number of candidates to be elected shall not invalidate the vote of that voter.

6) Returning Officer

Subject to the requirements of the RO Act:

- a) At its first meeting after the certification of these Rules, the Executive shall appoint a Returning Officer for the conduct of any elections, ballots or plebiscites as may be necessary throughout the ensuing period provided that a duly appointed Returning Officer shall hold Office until a successor thereto is duly appointed.
- b) A Returning Officer:
 - (i) Need not be a member of the Association; and
 - (ii) In any event, shall not be the holder of any Office in or an employee of the Federation, Association or any Zone of the Association.
- c) In the event of a duly appointed Returning Officer being unable or unwilling to act as and when required, whether during the conduct of any election ballot or plebiscite or not, the Executive shall appoint another person to act as Returning Officer for that election, ballot or plebiscite.
- d) The Returning Officer shall have power to appoint such assistants as deemed necessary provided that such assistants shall at all times be subject to the absolute control and direction of the Returning Officer.

7) Scrutineers

Any candidate may if they so desire appoint a scrutineer who is a financial member of the Association, to represent them at the ballot. The candidate appointing the scrutineer shall, before the closing of nominations, notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer, who:

- a) Shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count, but the Returning Officer shall have final determination of any votes or queries;

- b) Shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election;
- c) Shall not interfere with or attempt to influence any member at the time such member is casting their vote.

8) Absent Voting

A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer, prior to the National Council meeting, a written request for an absent vote, together with an address at which they can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for the absent vote to be lodged.

95 - ZONE ELECTION RULE

1) General

The provisions of this Rule shall apply to all elections for the following offices in a Zone:

- a) Zone Convenor; and
- b) Workplace Delegate

2) Tenure of office and number of offices

- a) Where an established Zone exists, Zone Convenors and Workplace Delegates, who are Delegates to National Council in accordance with Rule 72 (3), shall be elected by secret postal ballot of all financial members within their respective Zones. They shall take office from the declaration of their election, and shall hold office for a period of two years or until a successor thereto has been elected and taken office.
- b) Where a new Zone is established under Rule 85(2), Zone Convenors and Workplace Delegates, who are Delegates to National Council in accordance with Rule 72(3), shall be elected by secret postal ballot of all financial members within the new Zone. They shall take office from the declaration of their election and shall hold office for a period pre-determined by the Executive which ensures that the expiry date of the term of office is synchronised with the majority of the established Zones of the Association.
- c) The number of Workplace Delegates to be elected for each Zone shall be determined in accordance with the formula in Rule 72 (3) as at the date of the close of the roll of voters for each election for those offices.

3) Qualifications for office

A nominee for any office in a Zone shall be a financial member of the Association and allocated to that Zone as at the date of their nomination.

3A) A member may not vote, nominate candidates for election or nominate for election in any Zone other than the one to which that member has been allocated by the Secretary/Treasurer pursuant to Rule 64 prior to the close of the roll ("the closure") unless the Secretary/Treasurer declares in writing to the Returning Officer before the calling of nominations that:

- (i) the allocation of that member to that Zone prior to the closure of the roll did not conform to the requirements of the applicable National Executive resolution ("the relevant Resolution") in effect at the time that the Secretary/Treasurer made the allocation; or

- (ii) subsequent to the allocation and prior to the closure the employment circumstances of the member had altered to such an extent that compliance with the relevant Resolution required the allocation of that member to another Zone

- in which case the member shall be reallocated to the correct Zone and may vote, nominate candidates for election and stand for election in that Zone.

4) Returning Officer

5) Conduct of Elections

The Call for Nominations

- a) Not later than the 1st day of June in the year of an election, the Returning Officer shall call for nominations by circular (which may be by electronic means) to all eligible members of the Zone under this Rule, or by advertisement in a daily newspaper and/or Union Journal circulating throughout the State or Territory in which the Zone has members, and shall publish nomination forms on the Association's website and issue nominations forms to any financial member requesting the same.
- b) Nominations shall be in writing, signed by the nominee and the nominator (who shall be a financial member of the Branch) and shall be delivered to the Returning Officer at the address or in the manner (including electronic form) specified in the circular calling for nominations not later than 5pm on the 1st day of July in the year of the election.
- c) Nominations may be withdrawn up to and including 5 working days after the time and date the Returning Officer has declared that nominations shall close. The withdrawal of such nomination shall be in the form determined by the Returning Officer and shall be signed by the nominee.

Nominations Close

- d) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received for compliance with the requirements of these Rules and shall reject any that do not so comply; provided that in the event of finding a defect in any nomination the Returning Officer shall before rejecting the nomination notify the person concerned of the defect, and, where practicable give them the opportunity of remedying the defect in not less than seven days after the person is notified.
- e) If there are not more nominations than there are vacancies for a position, they shall declare the nominated person or persons elected to the position.

Preparation for an Election: the Preparation of Ballot Papers

- f) If more nominations are received than there are vacancies for a position, they shall have ballot papers printed and delivered to them containing the names of the candidates for each position in order determined by lot, indicating the number to be elected to each position, the manner in which votes shall be recorded, and the date and time of closing of the ballot such date being not later than the 31st day of August immediately following the closing of nominations. The roll of voters for the ballot is to be closed twenty-one (21) days before the day on which nominations for the election open.
- g) The Returning Officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of the ballot papers.
- h) They shall obtain from the printer a certificate of the number of ballot papers printed.

- i) They shall initial every ballot paper prior to its distribution.

Arrangements for the Receipt of Ballot Material

- j) The returning officer shall, for the purposes of receiving ballot material in respect of a ballot, use a private box or other secure postal facility at a post office or mail centre. Access to the private box mentioned in this rule shall be limited to:

- Persons authorised by Australia Post,
- The returning officer, and
- Persons authorised in writing by the returning officer.

The Delivery of Ballot Papers to Eligible Voters

- k) On or before the opening day of the ballot the Returning Officer shall forward ballot material in a sealed envelope by prepaid post to each person on the roll of voters at the address shown on the roll of voters.

- l) Ballot material shall include:

- a) one or more ballot papers showing the time and date of the close of the ballot
- b) a Reply Paid envelope addressed to the private box referred to in the rule, being an envelope that may be posted without expense to the voter,
- c) an inner 'Declaration Envelope' as prescribed by the Act, suitable for containing the ballot papers.

Lost, Destroyed or Spoilt Ballot Papers

- m) Where a member whose name is on the roll of voters claims that the ballot material has not been received or has been lost, destroyed or spoilt, the member may make an application to the Returning Officer for the issue of replacement ballot material

- n) The application shall

- be in writing
- set out the applicant's full name and postal address
- set out the grounds on which the application is made
- contain a declaration that the applicant has not voted in the ballot
- be accompanied, if practicable, by any evidence that is available of the loss, destruction or spoiling of the ballot material.

- o) If the Returning Officer is satisfied that the information contained in the application is true and correct, the returning officer shall issue replacement ballot material to the applicant.

The Safe Custody of Ballot Papers that are Returned

- p) During the course of the ballot the Returning Officer may collect returned envelopes from the private post box and keep them in safe custody until the commencement of the scrutiny. The Returning Officer shall make a final clearance of returned envelopes so that all envelopes received by the returning officer prior to the closing time for the ballot are admitted to the scrutiny. No envelopes returned after the close of the ballot shall be admitted to the scrutiny.

The Scrutiny of Ballot Papers

- q) The Returning Officer shall conduct a preliminary scrutiny of returned declaration envelopes to ensure that only one returned envelope from each eligible voter is admitted to the count. The returning officer may commence the preliminary scrutiny prior to the close of the ballot.
- r) Before proceeding to count the votes to ascertain the result of the ballot, the returning officer shall:
 - remove the 'Declaration Envelope' from the Reply Paid envelopes, and
 - examine the voter's declaration attached to each 'Declaration Envelope' and mark off the voter's name against a copy of the roll of voters.
- s) A voter's returned ballot material shall be rejected and set aside if:
 - the 'Declaration Envelope' has not be returned, or
 - the voter has not completed the declaration on the 'Declaration Envelope' to satisfy the returning officer,
 - the voter is ineligible to vote, or
 - the returning officer is unable to identify the voter on the roll of voters.
- t) Where a voter returns more than one set of ballot material, only one set of ballot material shall be admitted into the count. The returning officer shall decide which set of ballot material is to be rejected.
- u) The Returning Officer shall note on the ballot material that it has been rejected and the reason for rejection and set it aside for separate custody.
- v) When the Returning Officer has determined which declaration envelopes are accepted for the count, the declaration section of each envelope is detached and removed so that the envelope can no longer be identified. Each envelope shall then be opened and the ballot papers extracted to be counted.
- w) The Returning Officer shall reject as informal a ballot paper that:
 - Does not bear the initials or other authenticating mark of the Returning Officer, and/or
 - Has upon it any mark or writing by which the voter, can be identified, and/or
 - Is not marked substantially in accordance with the instructions included on the ballot paper, and/or
 - The marking is such that the intention of the voter is not clear, and/or
 - Is not returned inside the declaration envelope.
- x) Where, during the ballot, the Returning Officer is informed by a scrutineer that the scrutineer objects to a returned envelope or a ballot paper being accepted or rejected, the Returning Officer shall decide whether the returned envelope or ballot paper is to be admitted or rejected and endorse the decision on the envelope or ballot paper. The decision of the Returning Officer is to be final.

Tied Vote

- (y) If at the conclusion of the count of the ballot papers, two or more of the candidates have the same number of votes (a tie), the result shall be determined by the Returning Officer as follows.
 - (A) If one of the candidates held the affected office immediately prior to the calling of nominations for the election that produces the tied vote, that candidate shall be declared to be elected.
 - (B) If (A) does not apply, the Returning Officer will determine the result by drawing lots amongst the candidates.
 - (C) If (B) applies, the Returning Officer will give written invitations to the tied candidates to attend the draw. The draw will take place at the location and time nominated in the invitations. The draw will proceed at the specified place and time, whether or not any of the invited candidates are present. The Returning Officer will declare the result of the election determined pursuant to this paragraph immediately following the completion of the draw

The Returning Officer's Report to the Executive Meeting

- (z) The Returning Officer will provide a report of the result of the election for the next Executive meeting and shall submit to that meeting a full report of the ballot indicating the number of ballot papers printed, the number distributed and the number on hand and any other relevant matter.

Eligible members

- (aa) Eligible members under this Rule shall be the financial members of the Zone.

6) Scrutineers

Any candidate may if they so desire appoint a scrutineer who is a financial member of the Association to represent the candidate at the ballot. The candidate appointing the scrutineer shall notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer, who:

- a) Shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count, but the Returning Officer shall have final determination of any votes so queried;
- b) Shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election; and
- c) Shall not interfere with or attempt to influence any member at the time such member is casting their vote.

7) Casual Vacancies

- a) Where a Casual Vacancy, howsoever occurring in the office of
 - (i) Zone Convenor; and
 - (ii) Workplace Delegate
- b) The Executive shall take immediate action to have such vacancy filled by secret postal ballot of all financial members of the Zone provided that:

- (i) Where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs does not exceed one year, the Executive may fill such vacancy by appointment of a financial member of the Zone; and
 - (ii) Where the unexpired portion of the term of office in which the vacancy occurs exceeds one year, the Executive may fill such vacancy by appointment of a financial member of the Zone until an election is held, provided that no person so appointed shall hold office for a period exceeding three months.
 - c) Such election shall be conducted by the Returning Officer appointed pursuant to this Rule and the Returning Officer so appointed shall determine the dates for the closing of nominations and the closing of the ballot and shall report the result of the ballot to the next following meeting of the Executive.
 - d) Any person so elected shall take office from the date of the declaration of their election and shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the person they replace.
 - e) In all other respects, the election shall be conducted in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Rule.
- 8) System of Voting
- a) The system of voting in any election conducted pursuant to this Rule shall be the first-past the post system.
 - b) A voter shall record their vote by marking sequential numbers on the ballot paper, commencing with the number 1, in the squares opposite the names of the candidates so as to indicate the order of the voter's preference for each candidate, provided that failure by a voter to mark a preference beyond the number of candidates to be elected shall not invalidate the vote of that voter.
- 9) Absent Voting

A member who is entitled to vote and who will be absent during the conduct of the ballot may apply for an absent vote by lodging with the Returning Officer prior to the distribution of ballot papers a written request for an absent vote together with an address at which they can receive communications. The Returning Officer shall forward a ballot paper to the address so specified and shall notify the member of the closing date for an absent vote to be lodged.

96 – DUAL OFFICES

- 1) In the event of a candidate being elected pursuant to Rule 94 to more than one Office as defined in Rule 72 or in the event of a candidate being elected to more than one office pursuant to Rule 95, that candidate shall be declared elected to the higher or highest of such Offices.
- 2) For the purposes of this Rule, the order of precedence shall be:

 - b) The amounts of fees, subscriptions and levies payable to the Association pursuant to these Rules; less so much of the amounts as is payable by the Association to the Federal funds as defined;
 - c) Any interest, rents, dividends, or other income derived from the investment or use of such funds and property;
 - d) Any superannuation or long service leave or other funds operated or controlled by the Association as a whole in accordance with these Rules for the benefit of its officers or employees;
 - e) Any sick pay funds, accident pay funds, funeral fund or like funds operated by the Association as a whole in accordance with these Rules for the benefit of its members;
 - f) Any property acquired wholly or mainly by expenditure of the moneys of such funds and property or derived from other assets of such funds and property; and
 - g) The proceeds of any disposal of parts of such funds and property.
- 2) The funds and property of the Association shall be controlled by the Executive which shall have power to expend the funds of the Association for the purposes of carrying out the objects of the Association. For the expenditure of the funds of the Association on the general administration of the Association and for purposes reasonably incidental to the general administration of the Association, the prior authority of the Executive shall not be necessary before cheques are signed or accounts paid.
- 3) Fees, subscriptions and levies shall be paid to the General Manager.
- 4) Prior to the commencement of the financial year, the General Manager shall submit for consideration and determination by the Executive a proposed budget for the forthcoming financial year. The Executive shall be responsible for the allocation of Association funds.
- 5) The financial year of the Association shall end on the 30th Day of June in each year.
- 6) The Executive will develop and approve policies in relation to the expenditure of the Association's funds and management of its property, including policies to ensure fiduciary prudence in these matters.

99 – LOANS, GRANTS AND DONATIONS

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Rules, the following shall apply in relation to the Association giving any loans, grants and donations:

- 1) No loan, grant, or donation of an amount exceeding $1,000 shall be made unless the Executive is satisfied:
 - a) That the making of the loan grant or donation would be in accordance with the other Rules of the Association; and
 - b) In the case of a loan - that, in the circumstances, the security proposed to be given for the repayment of the loan is adequate and the proposed arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory.
- 2) Notwithstanding Sub Rule (1), the President may authorise the making of a loan, grant or donation of an amount not exceeding $3,000 to a member of the Association if the loan, grant or donation:
 - a) Is for the purpose of relieving the member or any of the member's dependants from severe financial hardship; and
 - b) Is subject to a condition to the effect that, if the Executive at its next meeting does not approve the loan, grant or donation, it shall be repaid as determined by the Executive.
- 3) In considering whether to approve a loan, grant or donation under Sub Rule (2), the Executive shall have regard to:
 - a) Whether the loan, grant or donation was made under the Rules of the Association; and
 - b) In the case of a loan:
 - (i) The security (if any) given for the repayment of the loan is adequate; and
 - (ii) The arrangements for the repayment of the loan are satisfactory.
- 4) Nothing in this Rule is intended to apply to or prevent the reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred by persons for the benefit of the Association.

100 – ASSOCIATION AUDITOR

The Association Auditor shall:

- 1) Be appointed annually by the Executive, and may only be removed by the Executive during their term of appointment by a special resolution of the Executive;
- 2) Perform such functions and duties as are prescribed by the RO Act including the yearly audit of the Association's accounts and such other functions and duties not inconsistent with the RO Act as are required by the Executive;
- 3) Have access to examine if desired all books, papers, deeds, documents and accounts of the Association and be empowered to question any Office bearer or Officer or employee of the Association with regard to the same and to obtain from any financial or other institution at which the funds of the Association are deposited or invested, such information as they may require; and
- 4) Have power to place before the Executive any suggestion they may desire to make concerning financial affairs of the Association.

CHAPTER 6 – ALTERATIONS OF RULES

101 – MAKING OR ALTERATION OF ASSOCIATION RULES

Subject to Rule 34(b) of the Federation Rules:

- 1) The National Council shall have power to make new Rules or to add to, amend, rescind or otherwise alter these Rules by resolution carried by a majority of members voting at a meeting of the National Council or by postal ballot of the members of the National Council conducted pursuant to these Rules.
- 2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 76 (3) and Rule 79 (5) of these Rules, notice of any proposal for the making of a new Rule or for the adding to, amendment, rescission or other alteration of any of these Rules shall be given in writing to each member of the National Council at least fourteen days prior to the relevant meeting of the National Council or to the commencement of the postal ballot (as the case may be) provided that any such proposal may itself be amended when being considered by the relevant meeting of the National Council.
- 3) The Secretary/Treasurer shall within thirty-five (35) days of the making, addition to, amendment or rescission of these Rules file with the FWC full particulars of the alteration in such form and manner that the FWC's representative is able to form an opinion whether or not the alteration can be certified.
- 4) The President shall as soon as practicable, but not later than seven (7) days after filing particulars with the FWC pursuant to Sub Rule (3) of this Rule, forward to the Executive a true copy of the said particulars and a copy of all correspondence and documents with respect to the FWC General Manager's dealing with the alteration.

CHAPTER 7 – OTHER MATTERS

102 – ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS AND INDUSTRIAL AGREEMENTS

Without affecting the operation of Rules 15 and 28 of the Federation Rules:

- 1) The Executive shall have the power and authority to lodge or file any claims, demands, disputes or other matter with the FWC or such other court or authority as it may deem necessary in the interests of the Association or any member or group of members.
- 2) The Executive may authorise the Secretary/Treasurer, any Association Officer or an Association employee to lodge any such claim, demand, dispute or other matter and to authorise that Officer or employee, or any other person, to represent the Association in the conduct of proceedings arising from such lodgement.
- 3) The Executive shall have power and authority to negotiate and enter into industrial agreements for the members of the Association. Any such agreement shall be signed either by the President, or in their absence the Vice President or another Office holder as authorised by the Executive.

103 – INSPECTION OF BOOKS & CONSIDERATION OF FINANCIAL REPORTS

Any financial member of the Association may at a reasonable time during normal office hours inspect the audited financial returns and membership records of the Association upon giving the Secretary/Treasurer seventy-two (72) hours' notice of their wish to do so.

104 – MEMBERS ENGAGED ON ASSOCIATION BUSINESS

- 1) Should any member of the Association lose any part of their salary or wages or be required to work extra time in consequence of their having been engaged on the business of the Association or their Zone under instructions from the Executive or their Zone Committee as the case may be, the Association shall make good all such loss or shall remunerate the member at their rate of salary for the time occupied by them whilst so engaged. Reasonable out-of-pocket expenses shall be allowed for members engaged on Association or Zone business.
- 2) Any Officer or member transacting business on behalf of the Association or any Zone thereof shall report on such business to the body which appointed them to carry out such business. Any such Officer or member neglecting to make such report may forfeit all claims for any time lost and expenses incurred whilst so engaged in such business.

105 – LEGAL ASSISTANCE

- 1) The Association may provide legal assistance to a member for any matter directly or indirectly connected with or having an impact or effect upon the performance of duty by the member in the AFP, or for any other matter affecting the member.
- 2) The National Council shall determine, and when necessary amend the scheme for the provision of legal assistance to members, and such scheme as it provides from time to time will be published by the Association on its website.

106 – STANDING ORDERS AND RULES OF DEBATE

The Executive shall determine from time to time the standing orders and Rules of debate to apply to meetings of the Association. A copy of such standing orders and Rules of debate as determined from time to time shall be supplied free of charge by the Secretary/Treasurer or by a Zone Convenor to any financial member of the Association requesting the same.

107 – GENERAL MANAGER

- 1) The Executive shall appoint a suitably qualified person (who need not be a member of the Association) to be employed full time as General Manager of the Association, on terms and conditions determined by the Executive, but subject to the subsequent provisions of this Rule.
- 2) The maximum term of appointment to the position of General Manager must not exceed three (3) years, although a further contract or contracts not exceeding such a term may be offered to such an employee if that person's performance, in the opinion of the Executive, justifies such further contract or contracts; however, no one person may be continuously employed by the Association as General Manager, or in any other position of similar character and rank for more than ten years, unless the Executive decides to do so by a Special Resolution.
- 3) The Executive must retain the right to terminate the employment of the General Manager:
 - a) Summarily for cause; or
 - b) On notice without cause, such notice not to exceed three (3) months, or payment in lieu thereof.
- 4) The full list of the duties of the position of General Manager will be determined by the Executive from time to time, but without limiting the duties that may be so assigned shall include the responsibility of managing and administering the National Office and the Association's employees, and may include any of the duties of the Secretary/Treasurer under these Rules (including that of being a signatory to any Association account).
- 5) Provided that:
 - a) Any of the duties of the Secretary/Treasurer delegated to the General Manager shall be performed by the latter under the supervision or at the direction of the Executive for the purpose of carrying out the policies of the Association or the decisions of the Executive;
